Senate Passes Veterans' Loan Measure 72 to 12

CONGRESS BEAMS CONFIDENCE TO OVERRIDE A VETO

HOUSE VOTED 9 TO 1 IN FAVOR OF THE VETERANS' MEASURE

SENATE'S APPROVAL EXPRESS-ED IN THE RATIO OF SIX TO ONE

By LYLE C. WILSON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, Feb. 20.—Speaker Longworth of the house signed the veterans loan bill today almost immediately after congress convened.

Five minutes later Vice President Curtis affixed his signature to the measure. That was the last formality before transmitting the bill to the White House, where an almost certain veto awaits it.

Washington, Feb. 20.— President Hoover is expected to veto, presumably within the next few days, the veterans' loan bill which passed the senate last night by a vote of 72 to 12.

Senate and house advocates of the measure are confident of enough votes to override a veto, the house having voted nine to one for the bill, while the senate's approval was in the ratio of six to one.

But for early adjournment of the house, the bill might have gone to the president last night. It will be signed today by Speaker Longworth and then dispatched to the White House.

This brief delay, according to Sen. Moses, republican, Nebraska, and others in the senate, may give Mr. Hoover the opportunity to exercise his right to "pocket veto." They assert that less than 10 legislative days remain before the close of the present session of congress, explaining that neither March 4, the final day of the session, nor the day upon which the bill is sent to the White House, can be counted in such a reckoning.

This development was overshadowed, however, by word from the White House that the president intends to act upon the measure and not to let it die for want of his signature.

In the ordinary course of events, the bill would be sent to the treasury for a report as to the desirability of the financial transactions involved. Secretary of Treasury Mellon, leading opponent of the bill, is almost certain to make an unfavorable report.

Last night's overwhelming approval of the bill came after the senate had refused even to engage in a record vote on the administration compromise which had been urged before the senate finance committee by Undersecretary of Treasury Ogden Mills. A bellowing chorus of "noes" rejected this amendment.

Whereas the bill as passed by congress increases the loan value of all world war veterans' adjusted service certificates from 22½ to 50 per cent of their matured value, the administration amendment would have restricted the 50 per cent loan privilege to those veterans actually in need.

All 12 of those who voted against the bill were republicans. They were: Borah, Fess, Goff, Hastings, Herbert, Metcalf, Morrow, Moses, Phipps, Reed, Smoot, Walcott.

Another solution for the ancient Muscle Shoals problem came before the house today for a vote, with even its opponents predicting approval of the new compromise for government operation of the Alabama power plant.

Speaker Longworth and other republican leaders opposed to the compromise are counting upon a veto by President Hoover to kill the legislation again as the original government operation bill of Senator Morris, republican, Nebraska, was killed by President Coolidge.

They do not count sufficient votes in the house to pass the controversial bill over a veto.

Mrs. Calvin Coolidge to Christen the Liner 'President Coolidge'

Newport News, Va., Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Mrs. Calvin Coolidge will christen the new Dollar liner "President Coolidge" at its launching tomorrow morning with a bottle of water from the Black river, a stream which crosses the farm at Plymouth, Vt., where her husband spent his boyhood days.

The new liner, named in honor of the former president, is a sister ship of the "President Hoover," which was launched last December 9th.

CONSTITUTIONAL ASSEMBLY TO BE CALLED IN SPAIN

PLANS MADE TO REVISE CONSTITUTION ADOPTED IN 1876

CABINET TO DISCUSS URGENT PENDING ADMINISTRATIVE PROBLEMS

Madrid, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Plans to call a constitutional assembly to revise the constitution of 1876 and at the same time discuss urgent pending administrative problems were outlined for the new cabinet headed by Premier Admiral Juan Bautista Aznar Y Cabanas.

The government will call municipal and provincial elections as soon as possible, the ministerial declaration said. The government intends to guarantee that the elections are sincere and honest, so that nobody may have cause to abstain, and no moves to disturb public order will be tolerated during the election campaign and the actual voting.

The declaration announced the government's intention to "touch two capital problems, viz., constitutional revision and the Catalanian separatist problem." The latter, the Catalanian separatist movement, has been a disturbing element in the Spanish political situation for many years.

The government also offered to send to parliament a project fixing the terms within which "one or several provinces might constitute themselves into a region." The project would outline the facilities to be granted by the central government.

The monetary problem will be the first considered by the new government. The peseta has declined to a new low during the past year and is worth about half its par value. The government will attempt revalorization of the peseta, which the government considers "still possible."

Therefore, parliament will discuss legal stabilizations "which can be maintained without disturbing Spanish economy."

The government will proceed with revision of decrees established during over seventy years of dictatorship "without a spirit of repression," the declaration said.

FOUND GUILTY 10 MONTHS AFTER HER OWN DEATH

LATE MRS. GUY BATES POST CHARGED WITH MURDER OF MRS. DORIS MURRAY PALMER

ATTORNEY TO ATTEMPT TO VINDICATE HER SPIRIT, PREPARES APPEAL OF CASE

Santa Ana, Calif., Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Although Mrs. Guy Bates Post was found guilty 10 months after her own death of murdering Mrs. Doris Murray Palmer, attempts will be made to vindicate her spirit. A Moresby White, attorney and friend of the former "Dresden China Doll" declared today as he prepared to appeal the unusual verdict to the supreme court.

Mrs. Post was found guilty in superior court yesterday of killing Mrs. Palmer last April in their Laguna Beach home. White pleaded that the crime be considered no greater than manslaughter.

250 Persons Seriously Ill From Ptomaine Poisoning, Ate Farm Auction Sale Lunch

UNUSUAL MISHAP NEAR ELKTON, S. D., VICTIMS IN AGONY

PERHAPS 20 OF THEM ARE IN DANGER OF DEATH, HOSPITALS FILLED

FOR HOURS PHYSICIANS WERE UNCERTAIN HOW TO TREAT ILLNESS

Elkton, S. D., Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Emergency calls were sent today to physicians in surrounding towns to bring medical aid to 250 persons made seriously ill from ptomaine poisoning caused, it was reported, by food served at a farm auction sale lunch.

Physicians said that many of the victims were in agony and that perhaps 20 were in danger of death. Hospitals in Flandreau, Elkton, Brookings and Hendricks, Minn., were filled with sufferers and a check on the condition of all was difficult.

The poisoning was caused, it was said, by gasses and steam which came from hot meat in sandwiches packed in air-tight containers.

The gas could not escape, physicians said, and it caused a germ responsible for the poisoning.

The lunch was served at noon on the Ed Ziebach farm, where the auction was held last Friday. At 2 P. M., many of the patrons at the sale became ill. At first it was believed that the sickness was caused by poison liquor.

Physicians were called and some of the victims left for their homes or for nearby towns to obtain medical aid. As the numbers of sufferers increased, it became certain the liquor was not responsible.

For several hours physicians were uncertain about how to treat the mysterious ailment. When the cause was learned they began administering soda bicarbonate and warm water, which was believed to have prevented many persons from becoming more seriously ill.

Most of the persons at the sale were men, but a few women and children from neighboring farms became sick. Mrs. Ziebach was near a nervous collapse today and her two children were sick but Ziebach was not affected.

Among those in critical conditions today were Thomas Hurney, Jr., 38; E. H. Elders, 55; Al Johnson, 30, and Frank Schaeffer, all of Elkton.

Father and Son Killed in Automobile Accident

Palmer, Minn., Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Hjalmer Nyberg, 50, and his son, Roland Nyberg, 19, were killed today when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by a Duluth and Iron Range railroad special passenger train at a grade crossing near here.

Lawrence Claffy of Two Harbors, engineer of the train, said that the father and son apparently paid no heed to the long blasts from the locomotive's whistle and continued across the tracks. The speed of the train was so great, Claffy said, that he was unable to stop in time.

BRAVE SISTERS SAVE LIVES OF 200 CHILDREN

FIRE BURNS ONE OF SACRED HEART ORPHANAGE BUILDINGS AT KINGSTON, N. Y.

FOR A TIME THE FLAMES THREATENED TO DESTROY ENTIRE INSTITUTION

Kingston, N. Y., Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—The bravery and presence of mind of a half a dozen sisters at Sacred Heart orphanage, West Park, near here, saved the lives of more than 200 children today when fire burned one of the orphanage buildings to the ground and for a time threatened to destroy the entire institution.

One sister discovered the fire in the school building adjoining the dormitories in which the children were sleeping at 2 a. m. She roused other attendants and they awakened the children, many of them under two years of age, and told them they were having a fire drill and were going to spend the rest of the night in the Nest building.

Bundled in their bed clothing the youngsters were led into the cold and for the first time realized there was a fire. Some were frightened and cried but within a few moments they were safely inside the administration building, some three hundred yards from the burning structure.

Firemen were forced to chop through several inches of ice on a nearby pond in order to get water and were hampered by a high wind.

Bill Makes State Old Age Pension Compulsory

2 BANDITS HOLD UP ST. LEO BANK AND GET $500

ESCAPE WITHOUT BEING SEEN BY ANYONE EXCEPT 2 EMPLOYEES OF BANK

"WE'RE BANDITS, GIVE US ALL THE DOUGH YOU'VE GOT," THEY SAID

St. Leo, Minn., Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Two bandits, working like experienced robbers, held up the St. Leo State Bank today, took about $500 in currency and escaped without being seen by anyone except two employees of the bank.

L. T. Franke, cashier, and his daughter, Louise Franke, bookkeeper, were alone when the bandits, both dark, smooth-shaven and about 30 years old, entered.

"We're bandits. Give us all the dough you've got," one of them said, thrusting a pistol through the window of the cashier's cage where Franke and his daughter were working.

Franke handed out a package of currency and the silver, which was practically all of the funds in the bank. The bandits ran outside, jumped in an automobile and escaped in the direction of Granite Falls.

St. Leo is a town of less than 150 population and the streets were practically deserted at the time of the robbery. No one saw the bandits except the two employees of the bank.

Franke said the automobile carried Minnesota license plates number B-98721.

Authorities of Yellow Medicine and nearby counties were notified to watch for the bandits. A posse of St. Leo citizens was hastily organized after the robbery, but the bandits had too great a start for the trail to be taken up.

WOOLING BRINGS CHARGES OF ASSAULT AND BATTERY, ATTEMPTED KIDNAPING

Ardmore, Pa., Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Arthur K. Darling, 19-year-old student filer of Chestnut Hill, was held without bail today on charges arising from an attempt to kidnap Miss Elizabeth Converse, Bryn Mawr student.

The charges include assault and battery, carrying concealed weapons and attempting kidnaping of Miss Converse.

Two other youths, William Millen, 24, and Charles F. Simone, 19, also were ordered held. They were waiting for Darling in an automobile near the Converse home, police charged.

Darling went to Miss Converse's home yesterday armed with a pistol and a pair of handcuffs, police said. His only intention, he said, was to take Miss Converse to his Chestnut Hill home and hold her there until he got possession of her two diaries. In these little intimate books he hoped to find enough evidence of the girl's affection for him to present to her parents and so further his suit, he told police.

Mrs. Converse testified at hearing last night, that Darling had an appointment to see her and her daughter yesterday morning.

She was upstairs when he arrived, she said, and the aviation student had an argument with Elizabeth. She heard a scuffle and when she rushed downstairs found Darling dragging Elizabeth across the front porch toward the automobile. Police took the lovesick youth away.

MINNEAPOLIS GIRL IN THRILLING STORY OF GANGSTER LIFE

CLAIMED SHE WAS TAKEN FOR RIDE IN CHICAGO, ORDERED TO KILL MILLIONAIRE

AUTHORITIES HOWEVER ORDER HER DETAINED FOR MENTAL EXAMINATION

Chicago, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—The shrieks of Miss Grace Kneffer, 18, of Minneapolis, Minn., startled the quiet suburb of Maywood today, as she ran down one of the streets, calling for help. The stories she told Chicago police, however, were even more startling.

"Al Capone took me for a ride last night because I wouldn't go over to the Breakfast club (a North Side center of gay life) and kill a millionaire," she sobbed when authorities questioned her.

"I was sitting in a Chicago avenue restaurant when Al and 18 of his gang came in," she continued. "I know there were 18 because I counted that many before I got dizzy looking at Al. He wore a nifty suit, swung a cane, and had on spats and cream colored gloves. He got chummy, paid my check, came over to my apartment for a drink, then asked me to do a favor."

"Sure," I told him. "Any time little Gracie can help a big shot like you, say the word." Then he asked me to kill the millionaire. When I told him I couldn't because I did not have my 58 revolver along, he got mad and said he was going to take me for a ride.

"That's how I got to Maywood. He drove out there and threw me into the street. I screamed because I was afraid he was coming back to bump me off."

Authorities were enthralled by the narrative, and Grace's boast that she could tell about "that Gold Coast case where the dancer was shot last Sunday," but ordered her detained for a mental examination.

NOMINATION IS OVER PROTEST OF SEN. SCHALL

JUDGE NORDBYE HAS SERVED AS JUDGE OF HENNEPIN DISTRICT COURT

GLAD TO ACCEPT APPOINTMENT IF IT IS CONFIRMED BY THE SENATE

Washington, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—President Hoover sent to the senate today the nomination of a man of his own choosing for the disputed Minnesota federal judgeship.

The name was that of Judge Gunnar H. Nordbye, judge of the state district court.

The nomination by the president came over the protest of Senator Schall, made to the president as late as today in a letter in which the Minnesota senator protested against his recommendations being ignored by the administration.

The nomination, in the face of this protest letter, which was read into the senate record today, foreshadows a fight in the senate over Judge Nordbye's confirmation.

The battle over the Minnesota federal judgeship came to a climax late Wednesday when Ernest Michel, Minneapolis attorney and Schall nominee, withdrew his name, and the Minnesota senator submitted to President Hoover a list of 10 other Minnesota attorneys as possible candidates for the judgeship.

Attorney General W. D. Mitchell led the fight against Michel's appointment and the president, joining with the attorney general, refused under any circumstances to transmit Michel's name to the senate for confirmation.

The president informed Schall that he wanted the judgeship filled before the expiration of the present congressional session March 4, and intimated that if Schall did not send to him a list of other nominees, he, the president, would make the nomination himself.

In spite of the list furnished the president by the Minnesota senator, President Hoover went ahead today and made his own nomination.

The announcement was made at the White House shortly after Mr. Hoover made public correspondence between himself and Senator Thos. D. Schall, republican, Minnesota, revealing their efforts to negotiate a settlement of the long and strong political dispute over the appointment.

Nordbye was included in a list of eight names that Mr. Hoover sent to Schall Wednesday for his consideration. He is 43 years old and was born in Norway.

The White House said that the appointment was endorsed by the Hennepin County Bar Association and half a dozen attorneys in Minnesota.

The names submitted by the president to Schall were: Charles Loring Crookston, Minn.; Julius E. Havercraft, Fairmont; Fred W. Senn, Waseca; G. H. Nordbye, Minneapolis; Norman E. Peterson, Albert Lea; Alfred L. Thwing, Grand Rapids; Carlton T. McNally, Ramsey county; Edwin J. Kenny, Duluth.

"I consider it desirable in the interest of the people of Minnesota that a man appointed shall not only have had judicial experience," Mr. Hoover wrote Schall, "but shall be entirely free from any private connections which might be challenged."

The list of candidates for the judgeship proposed by Schall had the names of Judges John A. Roesser of St. Cloud; Franklin F. Ellsworth, M. M. Hoyce, Mark Woolley, John P. Devaney and George R. Smith, Minneapolis attorneys; Frank W. Murphy, Wheaton, Minn., attorney and farm leader; Thos. Mangen, former state senator; Charles H. March, federal trade commissioner of Litchfield, Minn., and Thomas W. McMeekin, former St. Paul city attorney.

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 20.—Judge Gunnar H. Nordbye, who was nominated to be federal judge in Minnesota, is a good man, eminently qualified for elevation to the federal bench, Chester L. Caldwell, secretary, Minnesota Bar Association, said today.

"I know of no reason why his appointment by President Hoover should not receive unqualified endorsement by Minnesota attorneys," Mr. Caldwell, a practicing St. Paul lawyer, declared.

They do not count sufficient votes in the house to pass the controversial bill over a veto.

The conference report embodying the compromise between the Norris government operation measure passed by the senate and the Reece private operation bill passed by the house was to be called up about 3 o'clock today by Rep. Wurzback, republican, Texas, one of the conferees.

An hour of debate is permitted under the rules and then the house must vote. Support of most democrats and a good quota of republicans is expected to result in adoption. Longworth apparently has made no attempt to organize his forces against it.

LATE MRS. GUY BATES POST CHARGED WITH MURDER OF MRS. DORIS MURRAY PALMER

ATTORNEY TO ATTEMPT TO VINDICATE HER SPIRIT, PREPARES APPEAL OF CASE

Santa Ana, Calif., Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Although Mrs. Guy Bates Post was found guilty 10 months after her own death of murdering Mrs. Doris Murray Palmer, attempts will be made to vindicate her spirit. A. Moresby White, attorney and friend of the former "Dresden China Doll" declared today as he prepared to appeal the unusual verdict to the supreme court.

Mrs. Post was found guilty in superior court yesterday of killing Mrs. Palmer last April in their Laguna Beach home. White pleaded that the crime be considered no greater than manslaughter.

The unprecedented case was brought about when heirs of Mrs. Palmer fought her will which left $1,500 to Mrs. Post. They contended the bequest was illegal because a murderer could not benefit by the estate of a victim.
White contended that while a coroner's jury had decided Mrs. Post was guilty of murder and suicide, a superior court trial was necessary to prove her guilty. His contention she was insane was overruled.

"WE'RE BANDITS, GIVE US ALL THE DOUGH YOU'VE GOT," THEY SAID

St. Leo, Minn., Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Two bandits, working like experienced robbers, held up the St. Leo State Bank today, took about $500 in currency and escaped without being seen by anyone except two employees of the bank.

L. T. Frunke, cashier, and his daughter, Louise Frunke, bookkeeper, were alone when the bandits, both dark, smooth-shaven and about 30 years old, entered.

"We're bandits. Give us all the dough you've got," one of them said, thrusting a pistol through the window of the cashier's cage where Frunke and his daughter were working.

Frunke handed out a package of currency and the silver, which was practically all of the funds in the bank. The bandits ran outside, jumped in an automobile and escaped in the direction of Granite Falls.

St. Leo is a town of less than 150 population and the streets were practically deserted at the time of the robbery. No one saw the bandits except the two employees of the bank.

Frunke said the automobile carried Minnesota license plates number B-98721.

Authorities of Yellow Medicine and nearby counties were notified to watch for the bandits. A posse of St. Leo citizens was hastily organized after the robbery, but the bandits had too great a start for the trail to be taken up.

STRONG FOOD TO BE SERVED WHEN WIND IS IN NORTHEAST

Milwaukee, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—After workers in the federal building complained about odors drifting into their offices from the building cafeteria and then later complained because cabbage, spaghetti and hamburger were removed from the menu, the postmaster ruled that those foods must be served—but only on days when the wind was from the northeast.

WOOLING BRINGS CHARGES OF ASSAULT AND BATTERY, ATTEMPTED KIDNAPING

Ardmore, Pa., Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Arthur K. Darling, 19-year-old student filer of Chestnut Hill, was held without bail today on charges arising from an attempt to kidnap Miss Converse, Bryn Mawr student.

The charges include assault and battery, carrying concealed weapons and attempting kidnaping of Miss Converse.

Two other youths, William Millen, 24, and Charles F. Simone, 19, also were ordered held. They were waiting for Darling in an automobile near the Converse home, police charged.

Darling went to Miss Converse's home yesterday armed with a pistol and a pair of handcuffs, police said. His only intention, he said, was to take Miss Converse to his Chestnut Hill home and hold her there until he got possession of her two diaries. In these little intimate books he hoped to find enough evidence of the girl's affection for him to present to her parents and so further his suit, he told police.

Mrs. Converse testified at hearing last night, that Darling had an appointment to see her and her daughter yesterday morning.

She was upstairs when he arrived, she said, and the aviation student had an argument with Elizabeth. She heard a scuffle and when she rushed downstairs found Darling dragging Elizabeth across the front porch toward the automobile. Police took the lovesick youth away.

CLAIMED SHE WAS TAKEN FOR RIDE IN CHICAGO, ORDERED TO KILL MILLIONAIRE

AUTHORITIES HOWEVER ORDER HER DETAINED FOR MENTAL EXAMINATION

Chicago, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—The shrieks of Miss Grace Kneffer, 18, of Minneapolis, Minn., startled the quiet suburb of Maywood today, as she ran down one of the streets, calling for help. The stories she told Chicago police, however, were even more startling.

"Al Capone took me for a ride last night because I wouldn't go over to the Breakfast club (a North Side center of gay life) and kill a millionaire," she sobbed when authorities questioned her.

"I was sitting in a Chicago avenue restaurant when Al and 18 of his gang came in," she continued. "I know there were 18 because I counted that many before I got dizzy looking at Al. He wore a nifty suit, swung a cane, and had on spats and cream colored gloves. He got chummy, paid my check, came over to my apartment for a drink, then asked me to do a favor."

"Sure," I told him. "Any time little Grace can help a big shot like you, say the word." Then he asked me to kill the millionaire. When I told him I couldn't because I did not have my .58 revolver along, he got mad and said he was going to take me for a ride.

"That's how I got to Maywood. He drove out there and threw me into the street. I screamed because I was afraid he was coming back to bump me off."

Authorities were enthralled by the narrative, and Grace's boast that she could tell about "that Gold Coast case where the dancer was shot last Sunday," but ordered her detained for a mental examination.

JUDGE NORDBYE HAS SERVED AS JUDGE OF HENNEPIN DISTRICT COURT

GLAD TO ACCEPT APPOINTMENT IF IT IS CONFIRMED BY THE SENATE

Washington, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—President Hoover sent to the senate today the nomination of a man of his own choosing for the disputed Minnesota federal judgeship.

The name was that of Judge Gunnar H. Nordbye, judge of the state district court.

The nomination by the president came over the protest of Senator Schall, made to the president as late as today in a letter in which the Minnesota senator protested against his recommendations being ignored by the administration.

The nomination, in the face of this protest letter, which was read into the senate record today, foreshadows a fight in the senate over Judge Nordbye's confirmation.

The battle over the Minnesota federal judgeship came to a climax late Wednesday when Ernest Michel, Minneapolis attorney and Schall nominee, withdrew his name, and the Minnesota senator submitted to President Hoover a list of 10 other Minnesota attorneys as possible candidates for the judgeship.

Attorney General W. D. Mitchell led the fight against Michel's appointment and the president, joining with the attorney general, refused under any circumstances to transmit Michel's name to the senate for confirmation.

The president informed Schall that he wanted the judgeship filled before the expiration of the present congressional session March 4, and intimated that if Schall did not send to him a list of other nominees, he, the president, would make the nomination himself.

In spite of the list furnished the president by the Minnesota senator, President Hoover went ahead today and made his own nomination.

The announcement was made at the White House shortly after Mr. Hoover made public correspondence between himself and Senator Thos. B. Schall, republican, Minnesota, revealing their efforts to negotiate a settlement of the long and strong political dispute over the appointment.

Nordbye was included in a list of eight names that Mr. Hoover sent to Schall Wednesday for his consideration. He is 43 years old and was born in Norway.

The White House said that the appointment was endorsed by the Hennepin County Bar Association and half a dozen attorneys in Minnesota.

The names submitted by the president to Schall were: Charles Loring, Crookston, Minn.; Julius E. Hayercraft, Fairmont; Fred W. Senn, Waseca; G. H. Nordbye, Minneapolis; Norman E. Peterson, Albert Lea; Alfred L. Thwing, Grand Rapids; Calton T. McNally, Ramsey county; Edwin J. Kenny, Duluth.

"I consider it desirable in the interest of the people of Minnesota that a man appointed shall not only have had judicial experience," Mr. Hoover wrote Schall, "but shall be entirely free from any private connections which might be challenged."

The list of candidates for the judgeship proposed by Schall had the names of Judges John A. Roeder of St. Cloud; Franklin F. Ellsworth, M. M. Hoyce, Mark Wooley, John P. Devaney and George R. Smith, Minneapolis attorneys; Frank W. Murphy, Wheaton, Minn., attorney and farm leader; Thos. Mangen, former state senator; Charles H. March, federal trade commissioner of Litchfield, Minn., and Thomas W. McMeekin, former St. Paul city attorney.

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 20.—Judge Gunnar H. Nordbye, who was nominated to be federal judge in Minnesota, is a good man, eminently qualified for elevation to the federal bench, Chester L. Caldwell, secretary, Minnesota Bar Association, said today.

"I know of no reason why his appointment by President Hoover should not receive unqualified endorsement by Minnesota attorneys," Mr. Caldwell a practicing St. Paul lawyer, declared.

Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 20.—Judge Gunnar H. Nordbye, who was appointed today by President Hoover to be Minnesota's new federal judge, at present is a judge of Hennepin county district court.

His name was not included on a list of candidates for the judgeship suggested by Senator Thos. D. Schall to President Hoover.

One of the first intimations that he might be given the position was in reports earlier today in Minneapolis judicial and legal circles.

Nordbye is a former judge of municipal court in Minneapolis. His present position is judge of the fourth judicial district.

Judge Nordbye was appointed to the municipal court bench in Minneapolis in 1922. In 1925 he was named to the Hennepin county district court bench by former Governor Theodore Christianson to fill the unexpired term of

OH THESE WOMEN!

By LEOLA ALLARD

Copyright 1931, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Is any man's opinion worth destroying one's eye sight over?

And that question from a real man. "Some men are so egotistical and mean," he writes, "that they would damn a woman to blindness so that, in theory, she could look more beautiful by not wearing glasses."

He believes and I believe with him, that unless a woman has extraordinarily beautiful eyes, her appearance is often improved by glasses, and certainly whether it is or not, she should wear them if she has headaches from eye strain when she puts them aside.

You know the type of man who doesn't want his girl to wear glasses don't you? Well I'll tell you. He wants her to go to the theatre looking like Mrs. Astor's horse back in the gay nineties, rosettes and clanging harness, and a fancy blanket, and stepping high wide and handsome! I've seen these women at theatre first nights, in New York, and it's strange how they always find someone they know on the aisle whom they must stop and talk to, holding up the line of folks who want to sit down. And they always strike a pose when they chatter, getting their crinoline coat adjusted and their orchids effectively poised, and their smile set, and they raise their eye brows and wiggle their hands to show the glittering what-nots thereon. I've often thought it was too bad that it wasn't a ball game so someone—in fact lots of people could yell "sit down!"

Men who don't want girls who wear eye glasses and the show-offs who they would probably leave home for nothing more than that their wife wouldn't splash around and create a social stir. Women should worry about that brand of skunk.

The real man wants the girl he loves to do what's best for her health whether or not she looks smart doing it. If she ignores her foot he won't take some other girl to the theatre because his girl would limp. If she had her arm in a sling and he wanted her to be entertained, he would take her to the theatre if she had to be wheeled in. If he wouldn't—well he is hollow inside, bank on that.

One woman who cares a terrible lot what men think (most of us do) suggests that if only one eye is bad, a girl could wear a monocle and look smart and people wouldn't know she did it from necessity. She tried it and it worked, she says.

Yeah, but if one of these fellows came along who didn't like a monocle and she loved him, I suppose she'd go blind in one eye to make him happy. A female who can't be happy when he isn't showing off—well, a number of them went to prison in New York last year because they wanted to ride the Rolls Royces and Isotta Fraschini when their pocket books argued Fords.

There's nothing more disappointing to a real person, than a show off. New York has more of them than any other city, and they are highly amusing and make pretty scenery, but imagine anyone with as many as four ideas trying to spend a life time with them!

BRAINERD 25 Years Ago

February 20, 1906

While nothing much is being said there, is still some energetic work being done in explorations on the Cuyuna range, and some new people have been operating for some time. Three new drills have been started by the Longyear interests on Sec. 10 which is only a short distance from the big Pickands-Mather shaft. The W. C. White interests, who have much land south of here, have shipped in a drill and operations will commence in a few days on their properties.

D. M. Clark left for St. Paul this afternoon and incidentally will take in the big K. C. convention. Rev. P. G. Nelson of the city, pastor of the Swedish Baptist church has received a call to become pastor of the church at Grove City. As yet he has not decided whether or not to go.

Yesterday a crew of men started in again tearing down the Brainerd Lumbar company mill in this city after a suspension of a week or two and all that will remain in a week or two of what was once one of the most thriving milling industries in the state will be a few old sheds. This is but the natural consequence in the passing away of the great industry in northern Minnesota. The milling this year will commence very late. Ordinarily the season opens April 15, but this year will be May 15 or June 1. The trouble is a complete absence of logs in the booms and the difficulty of getting them down the river in any quantities before the dates indicated.

County Attorney A. D. Polk went to St. Paul this afternoon on business.

Miss Barrett Speaks to Congregational Men's Club

Miss Louise Barrett, principal of the Whittier school, was the speaker of the evening last night at a meeting of the Congregational Men's club held in the basement of the First Congregational church. Miss Barrett talking on a "Message of Citizenship" gave a very interesting account of what the schools are doing to further citizenship and effectively worked in the lives of Lincoln and Washington, whose birthdays are being celebrated this month.

About 50 men were present for the dinner, which was served by the ladies of Circle No. 3 of the church. The tables were prettily decorated with American flags.

Dr. W. A. Erickson presided and Luther Ford led the singing. An old fashioned "spelling bee" furnished a great deal of amusement. The two teams were captained by C. W. Hoffman and Dr. G. H. Ribbel. Hal Day was the last man spelled down and Richard Penrose acted as schoolmaster.

The next meeting of the club will be held some time in March.

Meeting Postponed

The meeting of the Epworth League of the M. E. church has been postponed indefinitely.

Mrs. John Fourre Entertains

Mrs. John Fourre entertained the Busy Hour Sewing club at her home in West Brainerd, Thursday afternoon. Fourteen were present. After the busy hour of sewing, a novelty game was played, with first prize to Mrs. Thomas Wheeler and consolation to Mrs. Frank Blank. At the close of the afternoon, a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess, and later a 7 o'clock dinner was served for the husbands. The evening was spent in playing cards.

BRAINERD
25 Years Ago

February 20, 1906

While nothing much is being said there is still some energetic work being done in explorations on the Cuyuna range, and some new people have been operating for some time. Three new drills have been started by the Longyear interests on Sec. 10 which is only a short distance from the big Pickands-Mather shaft. The W. C. White interests, who have much land south of here, have shipped in a drill and operations will commence in a few days on their properties.

D. M. Clark left for St. Paul this afternoon and incidentally will take in the big K. C. convention.

Rev. P. G. Nelson of the city, pastor of the Swedish Baptist church has received a call to become pastor of the church at Grove City. As yet he has not decided whether or not to go.

Yesterday a crew of men started in again tearing down the Brainerd Lumber company mill in this city after a suspension of a week or two and all that will remain in a week or two of what was once one of the most thriving milling industries in the state will be a few old sheds. This is but the natural consequence in the passing away of the great industry in northern Minnesota. The milling this year will commence very late. Ordinarily the season opens April 15, but this year will be May 15 or June 1. The trouble is a complete absence of logs in the booms and the difficulty of getting them down the river in any quantities before the dates indicated.

County Attorney A. D. Folk went to St. Paul this afternoon on business. Men who don't want girls who wear eye glasses and the show-offs and they would probably leave home for nothing more than that their wife wouldn't splash around and create a social stir. Women should worry about that brand of skunk.

The real man wants the girl he loves to do what's best for her health whether or not she looks smart doing it. If she injures her foot he won't take her to a dance. If she had her arm in a sling and he wanted her to be entertained, he would take her to the theatre if she had to be wheeled in. If he wouldn't well he is hollow inside, bank on that.

One woman who cares a terrible lot what men think (most of us do) suggests that if only one eye is bad, a girl could wear a monocle and look smart and people wouldn't know she did it from necessity. She tried it and it worked, she says.

Yeah, but if one of these fellows came along who didn't like a monocle and she loved him, I suppose she'd go blind in one eye to make him happy.

A female who can't be happy when he isn't showing off—well, a number of them went to prison in New York last year because they wanted to ride in Rolls Royces and Isotta Fraschis when their pocket books argued Fords. There's nothing more disappointing to a real person, than a show off. New York has more of them than any other city, and they are highly amusing and make pretty scenery, but imagine anyone with as many as four ideas trying to spend a life time with them!

Miss Barrett Speaks to Congregational Men's Club

Miss Louise Barrett, principal of the Whittier school, was the speaker of the evening last night at a meeting of the Congregational Men's club held in the basement of the First Congregational church. Miss Barrett talking on a "Message of Citizenship" gave a very interesting account of what the schools are doing to further citizenship and effectively worked in the lives of Lincoln and Washington, whose birthdays are being celebrated this month.

About 50 men were present for the dinner, which was served by the ladies of Circle No. 3 of the church. The tables were prettily decorated with American flags.

Dr. W. A. Erickson presided and Luther Ford led the singing. An old fashioned "spelling bee" furnished a great deal of amusement. The two teams were captained by C. W. Hoffman and Dr. G. H. Ribbel. Hal Day was the last man spelled down and Richard Penrose acted as schoolmaster.

The next meeting of the club will be held some time in March.

Meeting Postponed
The meeting of the Epworth League of the M. E. church has been postponed indefinitely.

Food Sale Saturday
Tomorrow afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock, the ladies of Zion Lutheran church, corner Main and Broadway, will hold a food sale at the Gruenhagen store on South Seventh street.

OH THESE WOMEN!

Is any man's opinion worth destroying one's eye sight over?

And that question from a real man. "Some men are so egotistical and mean," he writes, "that they would damn a woman to blindness so that, in theory, she could look more beautiful by not wearing glasses."

He believes and I believe with him, that unless a woman has extraordinarily beautiful eyes, her appearance is often improved by glasses, and certainly whether it is or not, she should wear them if she has headaches from eye strain when she puts them aside.

You know the type of man who doesn't want his girl to wear glasses don't you? Well I'll tell you. He wants her to go to the theatre looking like Mrs. Astor's horse back in the gay nineties, rosettes and clanging harness, and a fancy blanket, and stepping high wide and handsome.

I've seen these women at theatre first nights, in New York, and it's strange how they always find someone they know on the aisle whom they must stop and talk to, holding up the line of folks who want to sit down. And they always strike a pose when they chatter, getting their ermine coat adjusted and their orchids effectively poised, and their smile set, and they raise their eye brows and wiggle their hands to show the glittering what-nots thereon. I've often thought it was too bad that it wasn't a ball game so someone—in fact lots of people could yell "sit down!"

Men who don't want girls who wear eye glasses and the show-offs and they would probably leave home for nothing more than that their wife wouldn't splash around and create a social stir. Women should worry about that brand of skunk.

The real man wants the girl he loves to do what's best for her health whether or not she looks smart doing it. If she injures her foot he won't take her to a dance. If she had her arm in a sling and he wanted her to be entertained, he would take her to the theatre if she had to be wheeled in. If he wouldn't well he is hollow inside, bank on that.

USES SAX AND CIRCUS CALIOPE IN HIS REVIVAL

EVANGELIST SHOCKS DIGNIFIED OLD FRIENDS MEETING IN NEW YORK

PROCEEDS WITH WEIRDEST SERVICE EVER WITNESSED IN STAIR MEETING HOUSE

New York, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Some 35 worshippers at the conservative, dignified Old Friends meeting house at 27 Grammercy Park South were wondering today why and how Leon Tucker, a wandering self-styled "blood-bought" evangelist from California, showed them how to praise Jesus with a saxophone and circus caliope.

Tucker wandered into the pulpit last night with four assistants, set up his night club assortment of jazz instruments, and proceeded with the weird service ever witnessed in that staid old meeting house established in 1704 as a bulwark against the moderns. He remained despite the shock his service wrought, because the Friends in the pews made up in dignity what may have been lacking in the service.

"Tonight I shall bring the melodies of the night club into the tabernacle," Mr. Tucker told them. And he did.

"Jesus can be praised with a caliope. And He also can be praised with a saxophone."

"My Friends, the good book says that the meek shall inherit the earth but I say that the meek shall not inherit the earth until the other people get through with it."

"The earth is in the hands of the wicked and it is time the meek got together and took hold of things."

When a meek elderly lady in the front row requested "Abide With Me," a silvery trumpet and the jangling of 360 sleighbells hung on leather straps "rendered" her request.

The xylophone played "Rock of Ages," and the circus caliope and saxophone blended their output in "Shall We Gather at the River?"

When "In the Sweet Bye and Bye" was called for, every instrument in Evangelist Tucker's cabaret assortment joined in while the reverend himself stamped his feet in varsity drag mode.

There was a fair chance some of the meek would take hold of things tonight, for the Reverend Tucker announced, after failing to sell copies of his magazine at the close of the service, that there would be another service tonight.

"Certainly," the sexton was quoted as saying, "the Quaker congregation never sponsored Mr. Tucker's musical service." All he knew about it was "that a committee had brought him to convert the people of New York."

FIRE TRAPS A CHICAGO FAMILY AFTER EXPLOSION

2 CHILDREN KILLED, PARENTS AND 6 OTHER CHILDREN ARE INJURED

ONLY BRAVERY OF THE FATHERS PREVENT DEATH OF ALL

Chicago, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Two children of an almost destitute family were killed today and the parents and their six other children were hurt, two of them critically, when fire trapped them in their frame home after an explosion.

Only the bravery of the mother, Mrs. Anna Havlicek, 38, and the father, Robert, 39, prevented the entire family from being lost in the flames.

The two children whom fireman found dead in the blazing home were Leonard, 8 years old, and Dorothy, 3. The father and mother suffered burns and they were almost overcome by smoke before they jumped from a second story window onto a truck which three city truck drivers drove near the building.

Firemen said the explosion probably was caused by gas leaking from a range on the lower floor of the two-story building.

Loretta, 12, was so seriously burned she may die and Adeline, 10, also was probably fatally burned.

PERU CHECKS A COUNTER REVOLT

60 REBELS BESIEGED AT FORT FELPIS "KILLED OR CAPTURED"

By GESFORD F. FINE (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Lima, Peru, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—The government artillery bombarded the ancient Fort Felpis at Calles late today and "completely dominated" a counter-revolutionary movement which originated there shortly before dawn.

The government announcement said 60 rebels besieged in the fort had been "killed or captured" by loyal forces.

85 PER CENT OF RAIL LINES IN GROUP CONTROL

15 GROUPS OF HOLDING COMPANIES DIRECT THEIR DESTINIES

DISCLOSED WITH FILING OF HOUSE COMMITTEE REPORT ON HOLDING COMPANIES

Washington, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Eighty-five per cent of all the railroads in the country are controlled by 15 groups of holding companies, it was disclosed today with filing of the house committee report on railroad holding companies.

The report showed the Van Swerla-

gen brothers of Cleveland own the most extensive railroad holdings of any family, group or company in the nation. Their total is 28,411 miles of road. The other 14 companies, or interests controlling nearly 200,000 miles of track are:

Great Northern-Northern Pacific, Hill group, 27,393 miles; Pennsylvania, 23,698; Southern Pacific, 14,485; St. Louis-San Francisco, 14,217; Atlantic Coast Line, 14,122; Santa Fe, 13,166; New York Central, 13,376; Baltimore & Ohio, 11,270; St. Paul, 11,247; Chicago Northwestern, 10,205; Union Pacific, 10,157; Southern, 9,963; and Illinois Central, 9,109.

At the same time, however, the report revealed that on December 31, 1929, some 840,000 individuals owned voting railroad stock.

BABCOCK PLEADS FOR ROAD BOND ISSUE

St. Paul, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Charles M. Babcock, state highway commissioner, told the house highways committee today that the good roads bond issue for $15,000,000 should be passed to enable Minnesota to continue its highway construction program.

"If the present bond issue is passed," Babcock said, "there never will be a need for another."

"This fund would allow the paving of about 400 miles of highway each year for an indefinite period. It would give work to 5,000 men next summer."

Babcock said that if the $15,000,000 fund is provided, the state will collect $2,225,000 additional federal road aid this year.

ADD HEALTH TO HOT BREADS

Hot breads are tempting. But often they lack roughage. The absence of bulk from foods often results in constipation.

But now you can have hot breads with roughage. Simply add a cupful of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN to the recipe. This delicious cereal furnishes the bulk needed to assure proper elimination. You will find many appetizing recipes on the red-and-green ALL-BRAN package.

Equally tempting as a ready-to-eat cereal with milk or cream. Two tablespoonfuls daily are guaranteed to prevent and relieve both temporary and recurring constipation. In severe cases, use with each meal.

ALL-BRAN also furnishes needed iron for the body. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

EVANGELIST SHOCKS DIGNIFIED OLD FRIENDS MEETING IN NEW YORK

PROCEEDS WITH WEIRDEST SERVICE EVER WITNESSED IN STAFF MEETING HOUSE

New York, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Some 35 worshippers at the conservative, dignified Old Friends meeting house at 27 Grammercy Park South were wondering today why and how Leon Tucker, a wandering self-styled "blood-bought" evangelist from California, showed them how to praise Jesus with a saxophone and circus caliope.

Tucker wandered into the pulpit last night with four assistants, set up his night club assortment of jazz instruments, and proceeded with the weirdest service ever witnessed in that staid old meeting house established in 1704 as a bulwark against the moderns. He remained despite the shock his service wrought, because the Friends in the pews made up in dignity what may have been lacking in the service.

"Tonight I shall bring the melodies of the night club into the tabernacle," Mr. Tucker told them. And he did.

"Jesus can be praised with a caliope. And He also can be praised with a saxophone."

"My Friends, the good book says that the meek shall inherit the earth but I say that the meek shall not inherit the earth until the other people get through with it."

"The earth is in the hands of the wicked and it is time the meek got together and took hold of things."

When a meek elderly lady in the front row requested "Abide With Me," a silvery trumpet and the jangling of 360 sleighbells hung on leather straps "rendered" her request.

The xylophone played "Rock of Ages," and the circus caliope and saxophone blended their output in "Shall We Gather at the River?"

When "In the Sweet Bye and Bye" was called for, every instrument in Evangelist Tucker's cabaret assortment joined in while the reverend himself stamped his feet in varsity drag mode.

There was a fair chance some of the meek would take hold of things tonight, for the Reverend Tucker announced, after failing to sell copies of his magazine at the close of the service, that there would be another service tonight.

"Certainly," the sexton was quoted as saying, "the Quaker congregation never sponsored Mr. Tucker's musical service." All he knew about it was "that a committee had brought him to convert the people of New York."

Asks Birth Control

Mrs. Margaret Sanger, Chairman of the National Committee of Federal Legislation for Birth Control, making a plea in the cause of birth control before a special Senate committee at Washington, D. C. This is the second time since 1873, when the law prohibiting circulation of birth control information went into effect, that the subject has been discussed before a Congressional committee.

FIRE TRAPS A CHICAGO FAMILY AFTER EXPLOSION

2 CHILDREN KILLED, PARENTS AND 6 OTHER CHILDREN ARE INJURED

ONLY BRAVERY OF THE PARENTS PREVENT DEATH OF ALL

Chicago, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Two children of an almost destitute family were killed today and the parents and their six other children were hurt, two of them critically, when fire trapped them in their frame home after an explosion.

Only the bravery of the mother, Mrs. Anna Havlicek, 38, and the father, Robert, 39, prevented the entire family from being lost in the flames.

The two children whom fireman found dead in the blazing home were Leonard, 8 years old, and Dorothy, 3.

The father and mother suffered burns and they were almost overcome by smoke before they jumped from a second story window onto a truck which three city truck drivers drove near the building.

Firemen said the explosion probably was caused by gas leaking from a range on the lower floor of the two-story building.

Loretta, 12, was so seriously burned she may die and Adeline, 10, also was probably fatally burned.

PERU CHECKS A COUNTER REVOLT

60 REBELS BESIEGED AT FORT FELPIS "KILLED OR CAPTURED"

By GESFORD F. FINE (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Lima, Peru, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—The government artillery bombarded the ancient Fort Felpis at Calles late today and "completely dominated" a counter-revolutionary movement which originated there shortly before dawn.

The government announcement said 60 rebels besieged in the fort had been "killed or captured" by loyal forces.

No Limit to Charity

Spain's Hope?

Belief that King Alfonso of Spain is considering the summoning of a constitutional convention in an effort to solve the grave political crisis of his kingdom grew in Madrid following a statement by Count de Romanones (above), prominent Liberal leader, after he had conferred with the King. It is believed Romanones will play an important part in the selection of a new Cabinet.

85 PER CENT OF RAIL LINES IN GROUP CONTROL

15 GROUPS OF HOLDING COMPANIES DIRECT THEIR DESTINIES

DISCLOSED WITH FILING OF HOUSE COMMITTEE REPORT ON HOLDING COMPANIES

Washington, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Eighty-five per cent of all the railroads in the country are controlled by 15 groups of holding companies, it was disclosed today with filing of the house committee report on railroad holding companies.

The report showed the Van Swerla-

gen brothers of Cleveland own the most extensive railroad holdings of any family, group or company in the nation. Their total is 28,411 miles of road. The other 14 companies, or interests controlling nearly 200,000 miles of track are:

Great Northern-Northern Pacific, 23,698; Southern Pacific, 14,485; St. Louis-San Francisco, 14,217; Atlantic Coast Line, 14,122; Santa Fe, 13,860; New York Central, 13,376; Baltimore & Ohio, 11,270; St. Paul, 11,247; Chicago Northwestern, 10,205; Union Pacific, 10,157; Southern, 9,963, and Illinois Central, 9,109.

At the same time, however, the report revealed that on December 31, 1929, some 840,000 individuals owned voting railroad stock.

BABCOCK PLEADS FOR ROAD BOND ISSUE

St. Paul, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Charles M. Babcock, state highway commissioner, told the house highways committee today that the good roads bond issue for $15,000,000 should be passed to enable Minnesota to continue its highway construction program.

"If the present bond issue is passed," Babcock said, "there never will be a need for another."

"This fund would allow the paving of about 400 miles of highway each year for an indefinite period. It would give work to 5,000 men next summer."

Babcock said that if the $15,000,000 fund is provided, the state will collect $2,225,000 additional federal road aid this year.

ADD HEALTH TO HOT BREADS

Hot breads are tempting. But often they lack roughage. The absence of bulk from foods often results in constipation.

But now you can have hot breads with roughage. Simply add a cupful of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN to the recipe. This delicious cereal furnishes the bulk needed to assure proper elimination. You will find many appetizing recipes on the red-and-green ALL-BRAN package.

Equally tempting as a ready-to-eat cereal with milk or cream. Two tablespoonfuls daily are guaranteed to prevent and relieve both temporary and recurring constipation. In severe cases, use with each meal.

ALL-BRAN also furnishes needed iron for the body. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1931

Minnesota Safety Council

THE Minnesota Safety Council was formed to bring down Minnesota's total of traffic-accident deaths, injuries and heavy costs.

Deaths in 1930 numbered 584. Although much work has been done cooperatively or independently by state and municipal authorities, service organizations, business interests and private citizens, fatalities and injuries from traffic accidents are increasing annually.

Minnesota's death toll last year is equivalent to one person killed for each 1,275 motor vehicles registered in the state last year. In 1928 the ratio was one person killed to each 1,445 motor vehicles.

These accidents represent costs to Minnesota residents and business interests approximating over three and a half million dollars. Estimating life values at $5,000 each gives a figure of $2,720,000. Vehicle damage at $260 each represents $151,840. Time losses and injury costs at $250 each means $900,000 total, bringing the entire loss to $3,871,840.

The number of persons injured in Minnesota in motor vehicle accidents is variously estimated as between 18,000 and 20,000. This would mean that one person was injured for each 40 motor vehicles. The death rate from motor vehicle accidents is proportionately equal all over the state. With slightly better than one-third of the total number of motor vehicles, Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth had one-third of the total number of deaths.

What is a child's life worth, asks the Minnesota Safety Council. "A million dollars if it happens to be your own," is the answer. Brainerd is doing good work in safety rule promulgation and enforcement. The ordinance relating to "through streets" and its enforcement is doing much to check collisions at intersections of such streets with other streets. Officers of the city are enforcing traffic rules and the courts are sustaining proper enforcement. The problem grows with the seasons, Brainerd's heaviest traffic coming with the advent of the tourists. Officers are taught and expected to show the motoring public due courtesy.

The traffic problem will always be with us. Growth of our lake region, growth of the number of car owners and drivers, extension of highways and their improvements, all these contribute to make due enforcement of traffic laws a necessity in the preservation of life, limb and property. Each year sees a new crop of drivers who must learn in the school of experience.

Various bills now before the legislature are expected to contribute to the safety of the highways and streets for pedestrian as well as motorist.

A State Income Tax

ATTORNEY GENERAL BENSON has ruled that the legislature can enact an income tax law without first getting the Constitution amended.

No doubt the opinion is correct, says the Duluth Herald, but that doesn't mean that the legislature should do it. In fact, it is about the last thing that it should do.

The Herald reported a speech before the Kiwanis club by J. F. Reed, president of the Minnesota Taxpayers' association, in which he made this true statement: "The history of the income tax in the states that have adopted it shows that it was always held out as a replacement or substitution tax before its enactment, but in none of these states does it represent anything but another tax."

And that is true of every new form of taxation that has been adopted in this state. The increase in the railroad gross earnings tax from four to five per cent was going to cut other taxes, but it never saved any taxpayer a nickel. The occupation tax on iron ore was going to cut the taxes of general property-owners, but though it brings in millions it has not saved a red cent to any taxpayer.

The income tax, which will bear heavily on honest men and give the state another disadvantage in competition with states that do not impose it, is offered on the same ground. If the legislature makes the mistake of adopting it, it will have the same result—just another tax, some more money to be spent, and no benefit to any taxpayer.

Some time legislatures may learn that the only possible way to help taxpayers is to reduce expenditures instead of seeking new ways to tax.

Watching the 25 Years Ago Column

SUBSCRIBERS are watching the 25 years ago column to see when the first reference is made to the advent of the automobile in Brainerd.

So far the only accidents recorded in the transportation world as it then had its being and movement in Brainerd is the horse and buggy phase. Numerous incidents are recorded where the team ran down Front street and crashed into a telephone pole. The paper one day recorded three accidents and people wondered what this world was coming to, with horses getting so dangerous.

The lowly pedestrian, however, was not in imminent danger and seems to have avoided flying hoofs and buggy wheels. He pursued the even tenor of his ways and was never hurried in crossing streets nor did any one look askance when he picked his way in the middle of the block.

The city pointed proudly to its few macadamized streets and considered them the highest development in paving. Country roads were mere sand ruts in some places and it took courage to essay some of them.

The lively stable flourished and was the center of learned conversation. Travelingmen patronized the stables to make small town visits. We heard of one farmer boy, badly smitten, who sold wood in several cord lots, to be able to make a fine showing when he took his girl for a Sunday drive, and then the nags had to run away and ditch both into a lake at the turn of the road.

Tarviaing Section of No. 18

TARVIAING a section of State Trunk Highway No. 18 from the shores of Mille Lacs lake to Brainerd is something that heavy traffic has a right to expect and which it is hoped the State Highway Department will soon see fit to establish. The tarvia now skirts most of the west shore of Mille Lacs lake.

Travel on No. 18 should be accommodated with all tarvia from Mille Lacs to Brainerd. The territory is an essential feeder to Crow Wing county.

FIRST IN PEACE

"Who was George Washington? First in peace, first in war, first in the hearts of his countrymen."

THESE lines used formerly to be chanted to children, to the accompaniment of enthusiastic and somewhat painful paddling, at the approach of each successive Washington's birthday. But now that these birthdays are to number two hundred next year, people are planning to celebrate it in rather more formal fashion, in keeping with those days of minuets and powdered wigs.

Like all truly great men, the Father of our country was ahead of his times. How in step with the thought of these days, nearly two hundred years after he was born, when the whole civilized world is seeking a formula for the abolition of war, is that sobriquet of his "first in peace."

So let's celebrate his anniversary this year with a rousing good dinner and have our decorations take the form of small hatchets and cherry trees to commemorate his unrighteousness and veracity, and red, white and blue for patriotism and peace. For our most patriotic citizen was a peaceful man. One of his most memorable sayings was: "To be prepared for war is one of the most effective means of preserving peace."

Play Merry Games

There are lots of amusing games that can be played before, during and after such a patriotic dinner. One of them is a variation of the old-fashioned spelling bee. The guests are divided into two groups, and the leader on one side says "cherry." Then the leader of the other side has to say a word beginning with h. The second on the other side counters with one beginning with e, the second on the first side adds a word beginning with r, and so on till the final word beginning with y is used. Not more than two seconds should be allowed for anyone to think up a word. Any person who takes longer or forgets his letter is dropped out. Anyone can be challenged to spell or define a word.

The result will be much fun, and phrases, all beginning with the word "cherry," which will sound quaint when they are put together. Some that have been worked out spontaneously in this fashion are:

"Cherry has every red ripe yearning."

"Cherry how elderly rotten rich you."

"Cherry he eats rather roughly yellow."

"Cherry he earns right romantically yes."

Here's the Dinner

Now let's see what we can have for this patriotic dinner. We want dishes with plenty of red in them that will not only tickle the palate, but will be mostly indigenous to this country. Here's a suggested menu:

Deviled Ham Dainties

Cream of Salmon Soup

Crab Jelly Pickled Onions

Fried Chicken Maryland

Baked Stuffed Tomatoes

Mashed Potatoes

Cranberry Jelly Salad

Cherry Pie

Deviled Ham Dainties: Mash

together, one small can deviled ham, four teaspoons horseradish and two hard-cooked egg yolks. Season to taste. Spread on rounds of bread which have been sautéed in butter to golden brown. Pile some chopped sweet gherkins in center and radiate petals of egg white from center.

Cream of Salmon Soup: Remove skin and bones from two-thirds can salmon and rub through a sieve. Add slowly to four cups thin white sauce, season well with salt and pepper and just before serving add one cup thin cream and heat in double boiler. Serve with minced chopped parsley sprinkled over the top and croutons if desired. Serves eight.

Baked Stuffed Tomatoes: Choose uniform sized tomatoes. Cut out blossom end and scoop out to form a cup. Drain liquor from canned peas and season highly with salt and pepper. Fill tomato-cups and then put a spoonful of the tomato pulp over each. Cover tops with butter crumbs and bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees—30 minutes.

Cranberry Jelly Salad: Heat one can strained cranberry jelly with one-half cup orange juice and two tablespoons lemon juice. Soak four teaspoons gelatin in two tablespoons cold water, and then dissolve in the hot, melted cranberry. Strain and cool. Add one-fourth cup of diced celery and one-fourth cup chopped nuts when beginning to stiffen. Pour into molds wet with cold water and chill. Turn onto lettuce leaves, and serve with celery hearts stuffed with cream cheese. Serves eight.

Cherry Pie: Drain the syrup from a No. 2 can of cherries. To the syrup add two-thirds cup of sugar and cook to a thick syrup. Mix one-half teaspoon cornstarch with one teaspoon of water and add to the syrup, cooking until thick. When of right consistency, add to cherries and pour mixture into a pie tin lined with pastry. Bake twenty to thirty minutes. Serves six to eight.

FATHER OF FOUR AT EIGHTY

Benjamin Darley, 86-year-old veteran of the Civil War, and resident of the little town of Waverly, Ill., became the father of four children after he had reached the age of 80. This was revealed by a recent report on the Soldiers' Orphans' Home at Normal, Ill. The report stated that four children of a Civil War veteran were in the home, where the age limit is 18. Darley and four of his children are shown in this layout. Four others, one unnamed, died. At the top from left to right are George, 6; Mabel, 13; and Darley, 15. At the lower left is copy of application for admission of the children into the home. Ruth, 15, and Robert, 16, are shown at lower right. Darley married Elsie May Ford in 1912 when he was 67 and she was 23. Of the eight children which followed his marriage to Elsie May Ford, now dead, four died. The four living children, shown here, are in the orphans' home at Normal.

MUSICIANS FIND EMPLOYMENT IN BROADCASTING STUDIOS

It often happens that when men are thrown out of employment in one field of endeavor, another field opens up for them.

During the past several years many theatre musicians have lost their jobs because of the increasing use of the "talkies" in motion pictures. Large motion picture houses have dispensed with orchestras and now depend upon recorded talent alone.

During this same period, however, there has been a steadily increasing demand for well-trained musicians in radio broadcasting. The standard of radio programs has improved considerably. Amateur talent has been replaced by professional.

There has been a steady pilgrimage of musicians from the orchestra pit to the broadcasting studio. A development which was pointed out as boding evil for the future of professional music in this country has been offset by one that has opened up opportunities even greater in scope than the former afforded.

Changes Often Beneficial

This is a convincing example of the fact that not every new development is a danger sign for the employed. Developments of this sort frequently do result in temporary unemployment for a particular class, but as a rule, compensating developments soon open up other employment opportunities for them.

The world has lived and thrived on change, and hard as it may be to face that fact, one must realize that changes will continue to take place as long as man inhabits this earth. Looking forward, drastic changes may seem cruel and hard. Looking backward, one can often see that they were actually for the best in the long run.

He murmured: "Oh, Pardon Me" ...a hundred times a day...

A HUNDRED times a day he suffered the agonies of embarrassment as his conversation was interrupted by "Pardon Me's," as he turned away to stifle gas. It had been that way for years. No matter what he ate, it caused gas and discomfort. His stomach constantly caused him pain. He could hardly bear the idea of food. He was irritable and nervous—couldn't sleep. A friend suggested Tanlac. He tried it. In a few days the gaseous condition left him. His appetite returned. He began to feel loads better in every way. He slept like a boy.

Stomach gas is not only painful as well as embarrassing but it may be the warning of dangerous stomach troubles. Get rid of it—straighten out the condition that causes it with Tanlac. Few preparations have Tanlac's wonderful record of success in quickly relieving gas discomfort and stomach distress. It has helped thousands and it must help you too, or your druggist will return your money.

Minnesota Safety Council

THE Minnesota Safety Council was formed to bring down Minnesota's total of traffic-accident deaths, injuries and heavy costs.

Deaths in 1930 numbered 584. Although much work has been done cooperatively or independently by state and municipal authorities, service organizations, business interests and private citizens, fatalities and injuries from traffic accidents are increasing annually.

Minnesota's death toll last year is equivalent to one person killed for each 1,275 motor vehicles registered in the state last year. In 1928 the ratio was one person killed to each 1,445 motor vehicles.

These accidents represent costs to Minnesota residents and business interests approximating over three and a half million dollars. Estimating life values at $5,000 each gives a figure of $2,720,000. Vehicle damage at $260 each represents $151,840. Time losses and injury costs at $50 each means $900,000 total, bringing the entire loss to $3,871,840.

The number of persons injured in Minnesota in motor vehicle accidents is variously estimated as between 18,000 and 20,000. This would mean that one person was injured for each 40 motor vehicles. The death rate from motor vehicle accidents is proportionately equal all over the state. With slightly better than one-third of the total number of motor vehicles, Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth had one-third of the total number of deaths.

What is a child's life worth, asks the Minnesota Safety Council. "A million dollars if it happens to be your own," is the answer.

Brainerd is doing good work in safety rule promulgation and enforcement. The ordinance relating to "through streets" and its enforcement is doing much to check collisions at intersections of such streets with other streets. Officers of the city are enforcing traffic rules and the courts are sustaining proper enforcement. The problem grows with the seasons, Brainerd's heaviest traffic coming with the advent of the tourists. Officers are taught and expected to show the motoring public due courtesy.

The traffic problem will always be with us. Growth of our lake region, growth of the number of car owners and drivers, extension of highways and their improvements, all these contribute to make due enforcement of traffic laws a necessity in the preservation of life, limb and property. Each year sees a new crop of drivers who must learn in the school of experience.

Various bills now before the legislature are expected to contribute to the safety of the highways and streets for pedestrian as well as motorist.

A State Income Tax

ATTORNEY GENERAL BENSON has ruled that the legislature can enact an income tax law without first getting the Constitution amended.

No doubt the opinion is correct, says the Duluth Herald, but that doesn't mean that the legislature should do it. In fact, it is about the last thing that it should do.

The Herald reported a speech before the Kiwanis club by J. F. Reed, president of the Minnesota Taxpayers' association, in which he made this true statement: "The history of the income tax in the states that have adopted it shows that it was always held out as a replacement or substitution tax before its enactment, but in none of these states does it represent anything but another tax."

And that is true of every new form of taxation that has been adopted in this state. The increase in the railroad gross earnings tax from four to five per cent was going to cut other taxes, but it never saved any taxpayer a nickel. The occupation tax on iron ore was going to cut the taxes of general property-owners, but though it brings in millions it has not saved a red cent to any taxpayer.

The income tax, which will bear heavily on honest men and give the state another disadvantage in competition with states that do not impose it, is offered on the same ground. If the legislature makes the mistake of adopting it, it will have the same result—just another tax, some more money to be spent, and no benefit to any taxpayer.

Some time legislatures may learn that the only possible way to help taxpayers is to reduce expenditures instead of seeking new ways to tax.

Watching the 25 Years Ago Column

SUBSCRIBERS are watching the 25 years ago column to see when the first reference is made to the advent of the automobile in Brainerd.

So far the only accidents recorded in the transportation world as it then had its being and movement in Brainerd is the horse and buggy phase. Numerous incidents are recorded where the team ran down Front street and crashed into a telephone pole. The paper one day recorded three accidents and people wondered what this world was coming to, with horses getting so dangerous.

The lowly pedestrian, however, was not in imminent danger and seems to have avoided flying hoofs and buggy wheels. He pursued the even tenor of his ways and was never hurried in crossing streets nor did any one look askance when he picked his way in the middle of the block.

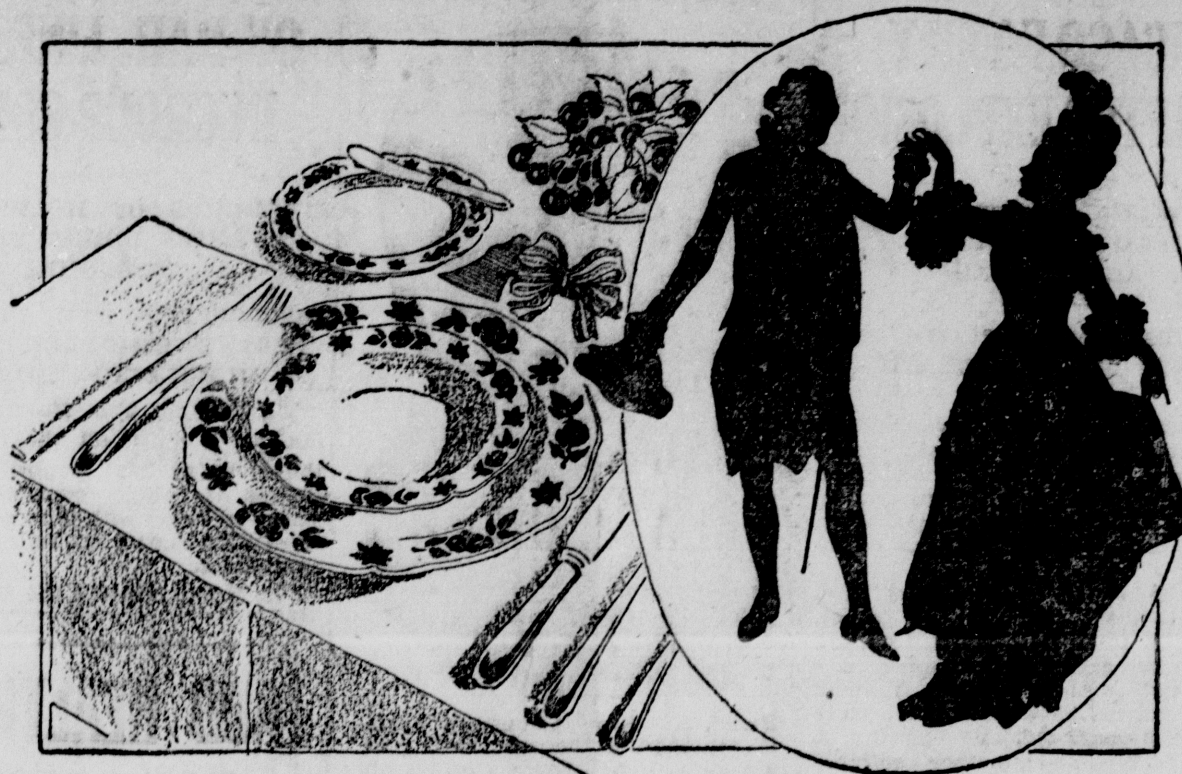

The city pointed proudly to its few macadamized streets and considered them the highest development in paving. Country roads were mere sand ruts in some places and it took courage to essay some of them.

The livery stable flourished and was the center of learned conversation. Travelingmen patronized the stables to make small town visits. We heard of one farmer boy, badly smitten, who sold wood in several cord lots, to be able to make a fine showing when he took his girl for a Sunday drive, and then the nags had to run away and ditch both into a lake at the turn of the road.

Tarviaing Section of No. 18

TARVIAING a section of State Trunk Highway No. 18 from the shores of Mille Lacs lake to Brainerd is something that heavy traffic has a right to expect and which it is hoped the State Highway Department will soon see fit to establish. The tarvia now skirts most of the west shore of Mille Lacs lake.

Travel on No. 18 should be accommodated with all tarvia from Mille Lacs to Brainerd. The territory is an essential feeder to Crow Wing county.

FIRST IN PEACE

"Who was George Washington? First in peace, first in war, first in the hearts of his countrymen."

THESE lines used formerly to be chanted to children, to the accompaniment of enthusiastic and somewhat painful paddling, at the approach of each successive Washington's birthday. But now that these birthdays are to number two hundred next year, people are planning to celebrate it in rather more formal fashion, in keeping with those days of minuets and powdered wigs.

Like all truly great men, the Father of our country was ahead of his times. How in step with the thought of these days, nearly two hundred years after he was born, when the whole civilized world is seeking a formula for the abolition of war, is that sobriquet of his "first in peace."

So let's celebrate his anniversary this year with a rousing good dinner and have our decorations take the form of small hatchets and cherry trees to commemorate his uprightness and veracity, and red, white and blue for patriotism and peace. For our most patriotic citizen was a peaceful man. One of his most memorable sayings was: "To be prepared for war is one of the most effective means of preserving peace."

Play Merry Games

There are lots of amusing games that can be played before, during and after such a patriotic dinner. One of them is a variation of the old-fashioned spelling bee. The guests are divided into two groups, and the leader on one side says "cherry." Then the leader of the other side has to say a word beginning with h. The second on the other side counters with one beginning with e, the second on the first side adds a word beginning with r, and so on till the final word beginning with y is used. Not more than two seconds should be allowed for anyone to think up a word. Any person who takes longer or forgets his letter is dropped out. Anyone can be challenged to spell or define a word.

The result will be much fun, and phrases, all beginning with the word "cherry," which will sound quaint when they are put together. Some that have been worked out spontaneously in this fashion are:

"Cherry has every red ripe yearning."

"Cherry how elderly rotten rich you."

"Cherry he eats rather roughly yellow."

"Cherry he earns right romantically yes."

Here's the Dinner

Now let's see what we can have for this patriotic dinner. We want dishes with plenty of red in them that will not only tickle the palate, but will be mostly indigenous to this country. Here's a suggested menu:

Deviled Ham Dainties
Cream of Salmon Soup
Currant Jelly Pickled Onions
Fried Chicken Maryland
Baked Stuffed Tomatoes
Mashed Potatoes
Cranberry Jelly Salad
Cherry Pie

Deviled Ham Dainties: Mash together, one small can deviled ham, four teaspoons horseradish and two hard-cooked egg yolks. Season to taste. Spread on rounds of bread which have been sautéed in butter to golden brown. Pile some chopped sweet gherkins in center and radiate petals of egg white from center.

Cream of Salmon Soup: Remove skin and bones from two-thirds can salmon and rub through a sieve. Add slowly to four cups thin white sauce, season well with salt and pepper and just before serving add one cup thin cream and heat in double boiler. Serve with minced chopped parsley sprinkled over the top and croutons if desired. Serves eight.

Baked Stuffed Tomatoes: Choose uniform sized tomatoes. Cut out blossom end and scoop out to form a cup. Drain liquor from canned peas and season highly with salt and pepper. Fill tomato-cups and then put a spoonful of the tomato pulp over each. Cover tops with buttered crumbs and bake in moderate oven, 375 degrees—30 minutes.

Cranberry Jelly Salad: Heat one can strained cranberry jelly with one-half cup orange juice and two tablespoons lemon juice. Soak four teaspoons gelatin in two tablespoons cold water, and then dissolve in the hot, melted cranberry. Strain and cool. Add one-fourth cup of diced celery and one-fourth cup chopped nuts when beginning to stiffen. Pour into molds wet with cold water and chill. Turn onto lettuce leaves, and serve with celery hearts stuffed with cream cheese. Serves eight.

Cherry Pie: Drain the syrup from a No. 2 can of cherries. To the syrup add two-thirds cup of sugar and cook to a thick syrup. Mix one-half teaspoon cornstarch with one teaspoon of water and add to the syrup, cooking until thick. When of right consistency, add to cherries and pour mixture into a pie tin lined with pastry. Bake twenty to thirty minutes. Serves six to eight.

FATHER OF FOUR AT EIGHTY

Benjamin Darley, 86-year-old veteran of the Civil War, and resident of the little town of Waverly, Ill., became the father of four children after he had reached the age of 80. This was revealed by a recent report on the Soldiers' Orphans' Home at Normal, Ill. The report stated that four children of a Civil War veteran were in the home, where the age limit is 18. Darley and four of his children are shown in this layout. Four others, one unnamed, died. At the top from left to right are George, 6; Mabel, 13, and Darley. At the lower left is copy of application for admission of the children into the home. Ruth, 15, and Robert, 16, are shown at lower right. Darley married Elsie May Ford in 1912 when he was 67 and she was 23. Of the eight children which followed his marriage to Elsie May Ford, now dead, four died. The four living children, shown here, are in the orphans' home at Normal.

MUSICIANS FIND EMPLOYMENT IN BROADCASTING STUDIOS

It often happens that when men are thrown out of employment in one field of endeavor, another field opens up for them.

During the past several years many theatre musicians have lost their jobs because of the increasing use of the "talkies" in motion pictures. Large motion picture houses have dispensed with orchestras and now depend upon recorded talent alone.

During this same period, however, there has been a steadily increasing demand for well-trained musicians in radio broadcasting. The standard of radio programs has improved considerably. Amateur talent has been replaced by professional.

Thus, there has been a steady pilgrimage of musicians from the orchestra pit to the broadcasting studio. A development which was pointed out as boding evil for the future of professional music in this country has been offset by one that has opened up opportunities even greater in scope than the former afforded.

Changes Often Beneficial

This is a convincing example of the fact that not every new development is a danger sign for the employed. Developments of this sort frequently do result in temporary unemployment for a particular class, but as a rule, compensating developments soon open up other employment opportunities for them.

The world has lived and thrived on change, and hard as it may be to face that fact, one must realize that changes will continue to take place as long as man inhabits this earth. Looking forward, drastic changes may seem cruel and hard. Looking backward, one can often see that they were actually for the best in the long run.

He murmured: "Oh, Pardon Me" ... a hundred times a day...

A HUNDRED times a day he suffered the agonies of embarrassment as his conversation was interrupted by "Pardon Me's," as he turned away to stifle gas. It had been that way for years. No matter what he ate, it caused gas and discomfort. His stomach constantly caused him pain. He could hardly bear the idea of food. He was irritable and nervous—couldn't sleep. A friend suggested Tanlac. He tried it. In a few days the gaseous condition left him. His appetite returned. He began to feel loads better in every way. He slept like a boy.

Stomach gas is not only painful as well as embarrassing but it may be the warning of dangerous stomach troubles. Get rid of it—straighten out the condition that causes it with Tanlac. Few preparations have Tanlac's wonderful record of success in quickly relieving gas discomfort and stomach distress. It has helped thousands and it must help you too, or your druggist will return your money.

FANS GO HYSTERICAL AS INDEPENDENTS STAGE MELEE

RUSSELL'S LOSE TO RANGERS 30-29 IN BATTLE ROYAL

CROSBY HANGS UP BIG LEAD IN FIRST HALF; BRAINERD RALLIES IN SECOND

MOLSTAD AND PAINE TAKE EVEN HONORS IN SCORING ABILITY

Who cares about the Minnesota Boxing Law?

There were more thrills in that Russell Creamery-Inland Rangers game last night than any fan could get out of a ring combat. It was priceless.

As long as referees continue to allow good wholesome wild battles to dominate a cage battle, as long as the players seem to enjoy it and as long as the gallery goes hysterical about it, hurrah, let the independent games continue the way they are.

What matter the score? Everybody got just as much kick out of the battle as though Brainerd had won. When Brainerd was caught at the short end of a 22 to 11 count at the half, the fans didn't appear ruffled. It was a good half with the contest a battle royal. But when Brainerd started creeping up on the Crosby-Independents in the second half pandemonium arose. It reached a pitch in the final quarter when Brainerd jumped their points up from a 26 to 18 count for C-I. to a 30 to 29 score for the visitors at the close.

That final melee brought to a fitting climax a game that sent 800 fans on their way talking to themselves. It left them "plumb daffy."

And withal, only six personal fouls were called, NOT ONE ON BRAINERD IN THE ENTIRE GAME!

The game was a medley with floor thuds, rabbit punches, muffled swear words, groans, breath takers and shrieks of the war cry comprising a harmonious score.

The Crosby boys, weaned on pig iron, uttered little squeals of joy and madness as they leaped into the fray.

The Brainerd boys, pasteurized milk exponents, met the pace with equal eagerness.

The Rangers were easily the conquerors in the first half and the same holds for the Russells in the last half.

Butorac, Crosby center, contributed 12 points to the Rangers' score, sinking six field goals, all of them in the first half.

Molstad, Paine, Wise and Dunn scored for Brainerd, Molstad and Paine leading with 11 points each.

"Molly" dropped them in without the ball as much as touching the rim of the basket. Paine sunk one-handed overhead shots, Wise dribbled all over the floor and scored two sensational baskets. Dunn popped in a field goal and a free throw. Gabiou was a dominating guard. "They shall not pass," he said and other guards, Kane, Foster and Garvey, held the same fighting spirit.

The Brainerd team will go a long way in the Y. M. C. A. state tournament at Minneapolis March 16 and 17. The quintet, under Lester Peterson's direction, has all the qualifications of a powerful independent squad.

KNUTE ROCKNE ALWAYS DUBIOUS BEFORE THE SEASON

Berkeley, Calif., Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Knute Rockne, whose pessimism regarding Notre Dame's football prowess usually repays him well, is dubious as to his chances for another national championship.

To the assembled students of the University of California yesterday Rockne outlined his 1931 team, or which several first class all-American candidates were recognized, and then voiced his fears as to the team's effectiveness.

The tentative lineup of Rockne's hapless Irish included Captain Tommy Yarr, one of the best centers in the business; Marchout Schwartz, "the best climax runner to play at Notre Dame in six years"; Jaskwich, who looks so much like Carideo most fans can't tell them apart, and Lukats, whom Rockne admits he has been grooming.

EDDIE SHEA IS FAVORITE TO WIN FROM FRANCIS

CHICAGOAN ESTABLISHED AS 8 TO 5 SHOT TO GAIN VICTORY TONIGHT

BOTH FRANCIS AND SHEA BOAST DECISIONS OVER FIDEL LABARBA

By DIXON STEWART (United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Broadway bettors are convinced it would require more than a gang of gunmen to make Eddie Shea "dive" after one unfortunate experience along these lines, and have established the Chicagoan as an 8 to 5 favorite to defeat Kid Francis of Italy in the feature bout at Madison Square Garden tonight.

The bout marks Shea's return to New York after a six year exile and brings together the leading contenders for Champion Bat Battalino's featherweight title. Both Francis and Shea boast decisions over Fidel LaBarba, erstwhile "uncrowned" champion, and Shea also holds a victory over Battalino in an overweight bout at Chicago last month.

Shea's last previous appearance in New York was in 1925 when he was counted out in the fourth round of a bout with Charles (Phil) Rosenberg, who held the title at that time. The fact that Shea's "knockout" occurred in the round named by "wise money" gamblers resulted in a life suspension for the Chicagoan.

Later it became known that a dressing room call from a group of gunmen, and the threat that failure to "dive" would mean death had influenced Shea, then a 19-year-old youth. These facts and Shea's excellent record since the Rosenberg bout brought him a pardon from the New York commission and he Chicagoan now appears destined to become world champion of his class.

Francis unquestionably is the best boxer and most scientific fighter in the featherweight division but does not appear to have the class to halt Shea's advance. The frail little Italian has won all of his fights in this country and doubtless will give Shea considerable trouble, but it will not be surprising if he fails to answer the bell for the tenth round.

Shea, hardest puncher and most rugged of present day midweights, has scored 72 knockouts in 100 bouts during the past six years and never has been stopped except in the questionable bout with Rosenberg. He is the only featherweight who has been ranked among the "first ten" for seven consecutive years.

San Francisco, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Young Corbett III of Fresno, recently awarded the synthetic California welterweight title, and Paulie Walker, hard-hitting New Yorker, will meet tonight for the second time within a month.

The two fought last month in Los Angeles with the bout ending in a draw, but this has not prevented Corbett's admittance from installing him as heavy favorite to win tonight's 10-round affair.

Corbett claims to have been slowed up considerably by an attack of influenza but feels improved now and is confident of giving a better exhibition. Walker, making his first appearance in San Francisco, has stuck steadily to his training and has issued no statements.

NEW YORK MAJOR LEAGUE CLUBS LEAVE ON TRIP

GIANTS TO TRAIN AT SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS; YANKEES GO TO FLORIDA

BOSTON BRAVES ALSO TO FLORIDA, ATHLETICS AND PHILLIES LEAVE SATURDAY

New York, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Baseball's annual migration to the south started in earnest today with New York's three major league clubs scheduled to enroute for training camp jaunts.

The Giants' party was scheduled to depart at 2:30 P. M. with Frank Hogan as the only regular member of the team in the group. Others will join enroute to St. Louis and when the train camp is opened at San Antonio, Texas, Monday all candidates for battery positions are expected to be on hand.

Three rookie players will be included in the Yankees' delegation of 30 which will enroute at 9:25 o'clock tonight for St. Petersburg, Fla. Manager Joe McCarthy and Coach Art Fletcher already are at camp and will put their charges through the opening workout Monday.

The Brooklyn club has no players from the metropolitan district and has not arranged an organized departure. Some of the Brooklyn writers and officials will accompany the Yankees' party as far as Clearwater, Fla.

Eighteen members of the Boston Braves left New York last night for St. Petersburg, Fla., in the first departure of a major league team for the south, although the Chicago Cubs and Pittsburgh Pirates already are camped in California.

Philadelphia's Athletics and Phillies are scheduled to head south Saturday and Tuesday respectively and when March 1 rolls around all major league clubs will be in training.

Avalon, Catalina Island, Cal., Feb. 20.—Delayed a day in the efforts to reduce the total weight of the Chicago Cubs pitching staff, Manager Rogers Hornsby "sentenced" the players to extra drill today.

Rain and wind yesterday kept the pitchers inside the clubhouse where they had skull practice. Late in the afternoon they played soccer.

The entire squad of 22 pitchers and catchers is in excellent shape, Hornsby said.

Chicago, Feb. 20.—Infielders and outfielders of the Chicago Cubs were gathering here today preparatory to the departure tomorrow of the second squad to the training camp at Catalina Island. Among those due here today were Hack Wilson, Kiki Cuyler, Riggs Stephenson, Lester Bell and Cliff Heathcote. Woody English arrived yesterday.

Chicago, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Two hundred and nine players from six middle-western states will start play tonight in the western open ping pong tournament in the grand ball room of the La Salle hotel. Play will continue tomorrow afternoon and night.

209 PLAYERS START IN PING PONG PLAY AT CHICAGO TONIGHT

LAUNDRY BREAKS ONE-GAME RECORD

GIRLS ROLL 808, WIN 3 FROM ANDERSONS; SEDLOCKS BEAT NORTHERN STATES

The Sedlock Jewelers took Northern States for three games at Van's alleys last evening, the first two being close. Kelly rolled high for Sedlocks.

The Laundry defeated Andersons in three, breaking the single game record for ladies by rolling 808. The total for the Laundry was 2215.

Van Essen rolled high single game of 193 and Kampmann and Kerstein were tied with totals of 466.

The scores:

Boston's Bruins are bruising their way along hockey's heights again and once more their demon defense men—Eddie Shore and Lionel Hitchman—come pretty close to being the all but impassable Scylla and Charybdis of the stormy ice sport.

Fan tradition already rates Shore as the better of this titan twain, but the weight of player opinion, gauging each in their allotted role of defense gives Hitchman a shade on even the extraordinary Eddie. True, the latter carries the puck more frequently, perhaps the puck more often in spectacular plays but Hitchman, every minute on defense, demonstrates that he is still living up to the famed code he observed when with the Royal Mounted Police—"he gets his man."

A camel trying to slip through the eye of a needle must feel like the puck-carrier does when he comes the ice in front of the rushing Shore and Hitchman. Some experts say the only way to get through them (and that's not often), is to try a quick plunge right through center; skirting either is hopeless. If either is a bit slow, you may flash through but, if they're not, you're caught between what feels like two flying Primo Carneras! The rocky, rollicking, tricky, colorful Shore and the hardbitten, hardhitting Hitchman—what a defense duo these bruising Bruins make!

Of a decidedly different but hardly less effective type is Nels Stewart, veteran forward of the Montreal Maroons. Some rate him "lazy" because he seems to be taking it easy until a scoring chance shows. Then he becomes a bolt of lightning on skates, perhaps as keen a sharpshooter for a goal as hockey has ever known.

Such distinctively individual stars as Shore, Hitchman and Stewart do much to make this game the great attraction it is. Incidentally, the highest fan tribute to their prowess, perhaps, is the vigorous way in which hostile crowds hiss 'em on every conceivable occasion.

Why red-hot New Yorkers have been calling Shore "Cry Baby" for years because they think he's a Pill Scott at yelling "Foul" but how they crowd in to see that alleged "cry baby" do his stuff!

FANS GO HYSTERICAL AS INDEPENDENTS STAGE MELEE

RUSSELL'S LOSE TO RANGERS 30-29 IN BATTLE ROYAL

CROSBY HANGS UP BIG LEAD IN FIRST HALF; BRAINERD RALLIES IN SECOND

MOLSTAD AND PAINE TAKE EVEN HONORS IN SCORING ABILITY

Who cares about the Minnesota Boxing Law?

Brainerd has its basketball. There were more thrills in that Russell Creamery-Inland Rangers game last night than any fan could get out of a ring combat. It was priceless.

As long as referees continue to allow good wholesome wild battles to dominate a cage battle, as long as the players seem to enjoy it and as long as the gallery goes hysterical about it, hurrah, let the independent games continue the way they are.

What matter the score? Everybody got just as much kick out of the battle as though Brainerd had won. When Brainerd was caught at the short end of a 22 to 11 count at the half, the fans didn't appear ruffled. It was a good half with the contest a battle royal. But when Brainerd started creeping up on the Crosby-Ironites in the second half pandemonium arose. It reached a pitch in the final quarter when Brainerd jumped their points up from a 26 to 18 count for C-I. to a 30 to 29 score for the visitors at the close.

That final melee brought to a fitting climax a game that sent 800 fans on their way talking to themselves. It left them "plumb daffy."

And withal, only six personal fouls were called, NOT ONE ON BRAINERD IN THE ENTIRE GAME!

The game was a medley with floor thuds, rabbit punches, muffled swear words, groans, breath takers and shrieks of the war cry comprising a harmonious score.

The Crosby boys, weaned on pig iron, uttered little squeals of joy and madness as they leaped into the fray. The Brainerd boys, pasteurized milk exponents, met the pace with equal eagerness.

The Rangers were easily the conquerors in the first half and the same holds for the Russells in the last half.

Butorac, Crosby center, contributed 12 points to the Rangers' score, sinking six field goals, all of them in the first half.

Molstad, Paine, Wise and Dunn scored for Brainerd, Molstad and Paine leading with 11 points each.

"Molly" dropped them in without the ball as much as touching the rim of the basket. Paine sunk one-handed overhead shots, Wise dribbled all over the floor and scored two sensational baskets. Dunn popped in a field goal and a free throw. Gabiou was a dominating guard. "They shall not pass," he said and other guards, Kane, Foster and Garvey, held the same fighting spirit.

The Brainerd team will go a long way in the Y. M. C. A. state tournament at Minneapolis March 16 and 17. The quintet, under Lester Peterson's direction, has all the qualifications of a powerful independent squad.

KNUTE ROCKNE ALWAYS DUBIOUS BEFORE THE SEASON

Berkeley, Calif., Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Knute Rockne, whose pessimism regarding Notre Dame's football prowess usually repays him well, is dubious as to his chances for another national championship.

To the assembled students of the University of California yesterday Rockne outlined his 1931 team, or which several first class all-American candidates were recognized, and then voiced his fears as to the team's effectiveness.

The tentative lineup of Rockne's hapless Irish included Captain Tommy Yarr, one of the best centers in the business; Marchout Schwartz, "the best climax runner to play at Notre Dame in six years"; Jaskwich, who looks so much like Carideo most fans can't tell them apart; and Lukats, whom Rockne admits he has been grooming.

NEW YORK MAJOR LEAGUE CLUBS LEAVE ON TRIP

GIANTS TO TRAIN AT SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS; YANKEES GO TO FLORIDA

BOSTON BRAVES ALSO TO FLORIDA, ATHLETICS AND PHILLIES LEAVE SATURDAY

New York, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Baseball's annual migration to the south started in earnest today with New York's three major league clubs scheduled to train for training camp jaunts.

The Giants' party was scheduled to depart at 2:30 P. M. with Frank Hogan as the only regular member of the team in the group. Others will join enroute to St. Louis and when the train camp is opened at San Antonio, Texas, Monday all candidates for battery positions are expected to be on hand.

Three rookie players will be included in the Yankees' delegation of 30 which will enroute at 9:25 o'clock tonight for St. Petersburg, Fla. Manager Joe McCarthy and Coach Art Fletcher already are at camp and will put their charges through the opening workout Monday.

The Brooklyn club has no players from the metropolitan district and has not arranged an organized departure. Some of the Brooklyn writers and officials will accompany the Yankees' party as far as Clearwater, Fla.

Eighteen members of the Boston Braves left New York last night for St. Petersburg, Fla., in the first departure of a major league team for the south, although the Chicago Cubs and Pittsburgh Pirates already are encamped in California.

Philadelphia's Athletics and Phillies are scheduled to head south Saturday and Tuesday respectively and when March 1 rolls around all major league clubs will be in training.

Avalon, Catalina Island, Cal., Feb. 20.—Delayed a day in the efforts to reduce the total weight of the Chicago Cubs pitching staff, Manager Rogers Hornsby "sentenced" the players to extra drill today.

Rain and wind yesterday kept the pitchers inside the clubhouse where they had skull practice. Late in the afternoon they played soccer.

The entire squad of 22 pitchers and catchers is in excellent shape, Hornsby said.

Chicago, Feb. 20.—Infielders and outfielders of the Chicago Cubs were gathering here today preparatory to the departure tomorrow of the second squad to the training camp at Catalina Island. Among those due here today were Hack Wilson, Kiki Cuyler, Riggs Stephenson, Lester Bell and Cliff Heathcote. Woody English arrived yesterday.

GOULD IN $750,000 OFFER FOR WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP FIGHT

Nice, France, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Edward Mayo, representing Frank Gould, to offer $750,000 for a world heavyweight championship fight on the Riviera in August.

Gould, American millionaire and owner of several gambling casinos, believes a match between Primo Carnera and the Schmeling-Stribling winner would be a good investment to attract patrons to his casinos.

Mayo has been instructed to offer Jack Dempsey $15,000 to referee the contest.

CHAPLIN IN SOME REAL LIFE COMEDY STUNTS IN LONDON

London, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Charles Spencer Chaplin, whose antics on the silent screen have made him world famous, performed some real life comedy stunts today, but without the benefit of his familiar flopping shoes or clicking cameras.

In an effort to re-visit familiar scenes in London without attracting a crowd, Chaplin tried to slip out of a side door of the Carlton hotel.

He pulled his heavy grey coat up around his chin, tipped his derby over his eyes and sauntered out to a side street. His plan was quite unsuccessful. A workman recognized him, immediately and shouted loudly: "Wot cheer, Charlie!"

Within a minute a crowd was collecting around him. Chaplin dashed for a taxicab and ordered the driver to make full speed ahead.

DEMOCRATS ARE TO CONTEST SEN. SCHALL ELECTION

ON GROUNDS THAT HE VIOLATED
CORRUPT PRACTICES ACT IN LAST CAMPAIGN

CONTEST TO BE ORGANIZED IN
10 DAYS, 3 POINTS BROUGHT
OUT IN CHARGES

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 20.—(UP)—The democratic state committee plans to contest the election of United States Senator Thomas D. Schall on the grounds that he violated the corrupt practices act in his last campaign, it was reported today.

James E. O'Brien, Minneapolis attorney and member of a democratic committee appointed to investigate Schall's election, said that the contest probably will be organized within 10 days. It was learned that in connection with the contest, Schall may be charged with:

1. Violation of the corrupt practices act.
2. Use of improper methods in obtaining campaign funds.
3. Misuse of congressional franking privileges in connection with handling personal or campaign mail.

Schall won his seat in last November's election by a majority of a few thousand votes over Einar Hoidale, democrat. So close was the election that the result was not determined definitely until two days after the election.

O'Brien is a member of a committee specially named by J. J. Farrell, democratic state chairman, to investigate the grounds on which a contest could be based.

Other members of the committee are George P. Douglas and J. F. Buchheit, both of Minneapolis. O'Brien said that the committee probably will meet within 10 days and consider means of starting the contest.

INVESTIGATION OF RURAL CREDIT DEPT. IS ASKED

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED IN
BOTH HOUSES OF THE LEGISLATURE

FINANCIAL STATUS, LOSSES
SUSTAINED

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 20.—(UP)—Investigation of the rural credit department by a joint senate and house committee was asked in resolutions introduced in both houses of the legislature. The resolutions ask that the committee:

1. Investigate methods the bureau uses in handling funds.
2. Determine the financial status of the bureau.
3. Determine losses sustained or which may be sustained through operation of the bureau.

The resolutions provide for a committee of three from each house which would have power to compel attendance and production of all records, and to spend whatever funds may be necessary to bring out all facts.

The resolution was offered in the senate by Senators Chris Rosenmeier, Little Falls; A. J. Rockne, Zumbrota; Claude H. MacKenzie, Gaylord; Henry Spindler, Buffalo; William H. Richardson, Rochester, and G. D. McCubrey, Moorhead.

JUDGE HOLDS HALF MILLION DOLLAR LOAN TO FOSHAY USURIOUS

Minneapolis, Feb. 20.—(UP)—Judge John E. Sanborn today ruled usurious a loan of $500,000 made by E. C. Warner, Minneapolis capitalist to the defunct W. B. Foshay Company and ordered the debt cancelled.

Ruling that the interest received by Warner on the loan was more than eight per cent, Judge Sanborn ordered him to return to C. J. Rockwood, receiver for the Foshay Company, all collateral given in security for the debt.

Wilbur B. Foshay, president of the bankrupt firm and one of seven former officials who have been indicted on charges of using the mails to defraud in connection with the company's collapse, was said in Judge Sanborn's decision to have negotiated the loan.

Judge Sanborn's decision charged that Foshay paid unwarranted prices for a fashionable home and for stock owned by Warner in connection with the deal.

DEMOCRATS ARE TO CONTEST SEN. SCHALL ELECTION

ON GROUNDS THAT HE VIOLATED
CORRUPT PRACTICES ACT IN
LAST CAMPAIGN

CONTEST TO BE ORGANIZED IN
10 DAYS, 3 POINTS BROUGHT
OUT IN CHARGES

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 20.—(UP)—The democratic state committee plans to contest the election of United States Senator Thomas D. Schall on the grounds that he violated the corrupt practices act in his last campaign, it was reported today.

James E. O'Brien, Minneapolis attorney and member of a democratic committee appointed to investigate Schall's election, said that the contest probably will be organized within 10 days. It was learned that in connection with the contest, Schall may be charged with:

1. Violation of the corrupt practices act.
2. Use of improper methods in obtaining campaign funds.
3. Misuse of congressional franking privileges in connection with handling personal or campaign mail.

Schall won his seat in last November's election by a majority of a few thousand votes over Einar Holidae, democrat. So close was the election that the result was not determined definitely until two days after the election.

O'Brien is a member of a committee specially named by J. J. Farrell, democratic state chairman, to investigate grounds on which a contest could be based.

Other members of the committee are George P. Douglas and J. F. Buchheit, both of Minneapolis. O'Brien said that the committee probably will meet within 10 days and consider means of starting the contest.

INVESTIGATION OF RURAL CREDIT DEPT. IS ASKED

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED IN
BOTH HOUSES OF THE
LEGISLATURE

FINANCIAL STATUS, LOSSES
SUSTAINED

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 20.—(UP)—Investigation of the rural credit department by a joint senate and house committee was asked in resolutions introduced in both houses of the legislature.

The resolutions ask that the committee:

1. Investigate methods the bureau uses in handling funds.
2. Determine the financial status of the bureau.
3. Determine losses sustained or which may be sustained through operation of the bureau.

The resolutions provide for a committee of three from each house which would have power to compel attendance and production of all records, and to spend whatever funds may be necessary to bring out all facts.

The resolution was offered in the senate by Senators Chris Rosenmeier, Little Falls; A. J. Rockne, Zumbrota; Claude H. MacKenzie, Gaylord; Henry Spindler, Buffalo; William H. Richardson, Rochester, and G. D. McCubrey, Moorhead.

Laughing at Death

One of the greatest aerial circus performers of all time is dead. Lillian Leitzel, who made millions gasp while she did death-defying stunts at the top of the tent, hurtled 50 feet, landing on her head, while performing in Copenhagen. All through life she had laughed at death. The fatal accident occurred when one of the grips, as shown in the picture, broke.

JUDGE HOLDS HALF MILLION DOLLAR LOAN TO FOSHAY USURIOUS

Minneapolis, Feb. 20.—(UP)—Judge John E. Sanborn today ruled usurious a loan of $500,000 made by E. C. Warner, Minneapolis capitalist to the defunct W. B. Foshay Company and ordered the debt cancelled.

Ruling that the interest received by Warner on the loan was more than eight per cent, Judge Sanborn ordered him to return to C. J. Rockwood, receiver for the Foshay Company, all collateral given in security for the debt.

Wilbur B. Foshay, president of the bankrupt firm and one of seven former officials who have been indicted on charges of using the mails to defraud in connection with the company's collapse, was said in Judge Sanborn's decision to have negotiated the loan.

Judge Sanborn's decision charged that Foshay paid unwarranted prices for a fashionable home and for stock owned by Warner in connection with the deal.

THREE PETITIONS FOR OFFICES OUT

J. H. Warner, R. H. Paige, M. E. Hitch
Seek Re-election for Respective Positions

CITY ELECTION, APRIL 7

Aldermen Whose Offices Expire Apr. 7:
Wesley, Hall, Elvig,
Ritari, Lee

Circulation of three petitions for signers to permit candidates to seek election today started off events that will lead to the spring city election,
Tuesday, April 7.

The three whose petitions are out will appear as incumbents: J. H. Warner, judge of municipal court; R. H.
Paige, city treasurer and M. E. Hitch, city assessor.

The petitions must contain one-tenth the number of voters that cast ballots in the city at the last November election.

Aldermen seeking election must return to the office of the city clerk ten days in advance of the election petitions carrying one-tenth the number of voters in their respective wards, judged by the November election.

These aldermen are those whose offices expire on the council this year:
Andrew Wesley, first ward; W. J.
Hall, second ward; Chris Elvig, third ward; Ernest Ritari, fourth ward;
Elmer Lee, fifth ward.

As yet no candidates have announced intentions of seeking the office of mayor.

Mr. Warner has been judge of the municipal court during the following years: 1892-1896, 1898-1915, 1925-1927, 1929-1931. He was county attorney in 1897 and 1898.

Mr. Paige was appointed city treasurer after the death of Richard H. and Elmer Lee was named to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Paige on the council.

Mr. Elvig of the third ward said today he had not definitely made up his mind whether he would run this year.
He said that if his constituents desired him, he would seek re-election.

Illness Postpones Debate

Illness of one of the Wadena debaters forced the cancellation this afternoon of the sub regional debate with Aitkin at the Brainerd high school.
The debate is now scheduled for next Thursday at 2.30 p. m. at the Washington high.

DAGGETT BROOK

There was a good attendance at the Farm Bureau meeting Saturday night and all seemed to enjoy the program.

having a sale on the 26th of this month.

John Scribner was calling on friends last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Swanson visited with friends in Brainerd last Sunday.

Rolland Dockham of Eagle Bend is visiting with Lester Hilderbrand.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Richolson entertained friends last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lute were in town on Saturday.

NOKAY

David Anderson is home from Crosby spending the week end with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. David Anderson entertained last evening a house party in honor of their daughter, Elaine's tenth birthday anniversary. The older people played 500 while the children enjoyed themselves playing games. A lunch was served by the hostess at midnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Olson and little son spent Sunday with Mrs. Olson's mother and father at Deerwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Peterson were guests at Carl Olson's home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmgren, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Palmquist and family were Sunday dinner guests at Mr. and Mrs.
Carl Olson's home.

Mr. and Mrs. David Anderson entertained a party of young people from Crosby, Ironton, and Aitkin last evening. The evening was spent in playing 500. The head prize was captured by Jennie Weddle and Mrs. Carl Olson won the consolation prize. A bountiful lunch was served at midnight.

Miss Mabel Cowling and Roy Packor were visitors at Mrs. Olson's home recently. Miss Cowling is a sister of Mrs. Olson.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Johnson and children were recently visitors at Carl Olson's home.

urer.

MINNESOTA LOOKS PROSPEROUS TO N. Y. BUSINESS WORLD

St. Paul, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Minnesota's prosperity has caused New York business men to change their attitude of sympathy to one of envy, Gilbert T. Hodges, president of the Advertising Federation of America, said on his arrival here for an address today.

"We in New York have been feeling sympathetic for Minnesota because of the reported business and agricultural depression here," said Hodges. "I now discover that diversified farming has made this section into one of the nation's most prosperous and stable districts."

Increased advertising will result in increased sales during a period of business depression as well as at any other time, Hodges said.

"TALL PINE BOSS" CLAIMED BY DEATH

Hezzeltine Witham, Builder of First
Saw Mill in Black Hills, Dies;
Has Brother Here

Hezzeltine Witham, whom the Chippewa Indians called Shingauk Ogama,
"The Tall Pine Boss," who was an early Minnesota lumberman and builder of the first sawmill in the Black Hills, died Wednesday night in the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. F.
Hinrichs, St. Paul. He is a brother of John W. Witham, Brainerd.

Mr. Witham, who was 85 years old, was born in Carmel, Maine. He went to St. Paul in 1870. For some time he was with the Leonard Day Lumber Co. Later he went to the North Woods.

In 1877 Mr. Witham went to Deadwood, S. D., to erect the sawmill. He remained until 1919 when he returned to St. Paul and, with his wife, made his home with Mrs. Hinrichs.

Mr. Witham is survived by his widow, a son, H. V. Witham, two daughters, Mrs. Hinrichs and Mrs. C.
M. Stearns, all of St. Paul, and a brother,
John W. Witham of Brainerd.

Funeral services will be held in the Hinrichs residence at 1 p. m. Saturday. Rev. J. Phillip Garland of Wal-rendale will officiate. Burial will be at Hastings.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

OWATONNA TO HAVE NEW CITY CHARTER

Owatonna, Minn., Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—
District Judge F. W. Senn announced today the appointment of 15 Owatonna citizens to a committee which will consider drawing up a new city charter.

Proposals for a new charter have been received, Judge Senn said, from scores of citizens, who declared that the present charter, which was drawn up in 1909, is antiquated.

NEW STANDARD IS SET IN PERFECTING FLAVOR OF COFFEE

Roasting Process Used Exclusively by Hills Bros.
Insures Uniformity

For years Hills Bros. have enjoyed a distinct advantage in the coffee roasting industry. For they have a patented roasting process that prevents variation in flavor.

The basic principle of the process is roasting "a little at a time."
Automatically measured lots of rare blended coffees—about three pounds—are introduced into the roaster in a steady stream and pass along in a continuous flow, roasting a little at a time. The speed of the flow and degree of heat never vary with the result that Hills Bros.
Coffee is absolutely uniform.

No other coffee has the same delicious flavor of Hills Bros. Coffee because no other coffee is roasted the same way. This patented process—Controlled Roasting—is radically different from the common bulk-roasting method.

Freshness is assured in Hills Bros. Coffee because it is packed in vacuum cans. By this process, air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, is removed from the can and kept out. Ordinary cans, even if airtight, do not keep coffee fresh.
Grocers everywhere sell Hills Bros.
Coffee. Ask for it by name and look for the Arab—the trade-mark—on the can.

apolis, Minnesota.

REV. VILHO RANTA ACCEPTS NEW CALL

Resigns at New York Mills to go to Hibbing Pastorate

Rev. Vilho Ranta, former pastor of the Finnish Lutheran church of this city, now pastor of the congregation of St. Peters Lutheran church at New York Mills, has resigned to accept a call to the Synod church at Hibbing.
He does not expect to leave until some time in May.

Mr. Ranta left Brainerd about seven years ago to go to New York Mills.
Since becoming pastor there, the church has been built up. Both a Junior and Senior choir have been built up, a Christian Endeavor organized, the church remodeled, a parsonage purchased, and the congregation greatly increased. The change to Hibbing comes as a distinct promotion for
Mr. Ranta.

Governor Olson Calls Halt to Speech Making

St. Paul, Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—Gov. Floyd
B. Olson, who has been making an average of two speeches a day in addition to his executive duties, today called a halt to activities outside the capitol.

Through his secretary, Vince Day, he served notice that he will accept only absolutely necessary speaking engagements during March.

The press of legislative business for the next month is expected to produce a large number of bills for his consideration and signature.

CHICAGO'S BATHTUB SCENE RIVALLED IN DENVER SOCIETY

Denver, Colo., Feb. 20.—(U.P.)—A rival to Chicago's bathtub scene was staged at the Civic theater of the University of Denver here last night.

Several differences were noted, however. Among them:

The principal was a dancer and was entirely nude, that is, unless you consider grease paint.

The dancer was a man and the audience was not public, but composed of a select group of society folk.

The exhibition was performed for art's sake and sought to demonstrate impressionistic dance interpretation.

There was no police raid of the affair, but there was about as much gossip afterwards as if there had been.

The youth was Edward McLean, former Denishawn dancer. He began his moody writhings under shadow lights and as the lighting grew brighter, the performer donned various parts of a costume.

Super-Shell Ethyl

Livelier, quicker anti-knock gasoline... because science has found a way to REMOVE EVERY SLOW-VAPORIZING, LAZY PARTICLE

Now... science's new, perfected anti-knock fuel!

Super-Shell Ethyl is different.
It contains Ethyl fluid, of course
—a generous charge that assures positive anti-knock value. But with this is now blended a special gasoline.

Shell engineers developed it.
They knew that inferior gasoline
—no matter what was added—doesn't deliver best performance in your car. They set out to make anti-knock fuel utterly free of slow-firing, harmful,
"heavy" gasoline particles.
Months of experiment... then they succeeded!

It is a matter of "washing" the gasoline in a series of huge refining towers where the gasoline vapors travel over Shell's amazing system of "bubble cap trays." Here all the harmful, heavy "fractions" so often left in gasoline are "scrubbed" out.

Into a special pipe flows only the volatile, lively gasoline which Shell blends with Ethyl fluid!

Thus Super-Shell Ethyl gives you finest engine operation.
Quick starting. Smooth, even power. High anti-knock value.

Now... see what really fine performance your motor is capable of giving. Try this new Super-Shell Ethyl today. One test will convince you.

THREE PETITIONS FOR OFFICES OUT

J. H. Warner, R. H. Paige, M. E. Hitch
Seek Re-election for Respective Positions

CITY ELECTION, APRIL 7

Aldermen Whose Offices Expire Are:
Wesley, Hall, Elvig,
Ritari, Lee

Circulation of three petitions for signers to permit candidates to seek election today started off events that will lead to the spring city election, Tuesday, April 7.

The three whose petitions are out will appear as incumbents: J. H. Warner, judge of municipal court; R. H. Paige, city treasurer and M. E. Hitch, city assessor.

The petitions must contain one-tenth the number of voters that cast ballots in the city at the last November election.

Aldermen seeking election must return to the office of the city clerk ten days in advance of the election petitions carrying one-tenth the number of voters in their respective wards, judged by the November election.

These aldermen are those whose offices expire on the council this year: Andrew Wesley, first ward; W. J. Hall, second ward; Chris Elvig, third ward; Ernest Ritari, fourth ward; Elmer Lee, fifth ward.

As yet no candidates have announced intentions of seeking the office of mayor.

Mr. Warner has been judge of the municipal court during the following years: 1892-1896, 1898-1915, 1925-1927, 1929-1931. He was county attorney in 1897 and 1898.

Mr. Paige was appointed city treasurer after the death of Richard Lee and Elmer Lee was named to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Paige on the council.

Mr. Elvig of the third ward said today he had not definitely made up his mind whether he would run this year. He said that if his constituents desired him to, he would seek re-election.

MINNESOTA LOOKS PROSPEROUS TO N. Y. BUSINESS WORLD

St. Paul, Feb. 20.—(UP)—Minnesota's prosperity has caused New York business men to change their attitude of sympathy to one of envy, Gilbert T. Hodges, president of the Advertising Federation of America, said on his arrival here for an address today.

"We in New York have been feeling sympathetic for Minnesota because of the reported business and agricultural depression here," said Hodges. "I now discover that diversified farming has made this section into one of the nation's most prosperous and stable districts."

Increased advertising will result in increased sales during a period of business depression as well as at any other time, Hodges said.

"TALL PINE BOSS" CLAIMED BY DEATH

Hezzeltine Witham, Builder of First
Saw Mill in Black Hills, Dies;
Has Brother Here

Hezzeltine Witham, whom the Chippewa Indians called Shingauk Oganua, "The Tall Pine Boss," who was an early Minnesota lumberman and builder of the first sawmill in the Black Hills, died Wednesday night in the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. F. Hinrichs, St. Paul. He is a brother of John W. Witham, Brainerd.

Mr. Witham, who was 85 years old, was born in Carmel, Maine. He went to St. Paul in 1870. For some time he was with the Leonard Day Lumber Co. Later he went to the North Woods.

In 1877 Mr. Witham went to Deadwood, S. D., to erect the sawmill. He remained until 1919 when he returned to St. Paul and, with his wife, made his home with Mrs. Hinrichs.

Mr. Witham is survived by his widow, a son, H. V. Witham, two daughters, Mrs. Hinrichs and Mrs. C. M. Stearns, all of St. Paul, and a brother, John W. Witham of Brainerd.

Funeral services will be held in the Hinrichs residence at 1 p. m. Saturday. Rev. J. Phillip Garland of Warendale will officiate. Burial will be at Hastings.

OWATONNA TO HAVE NEW CITY CHARTER

Owatonna, Minn., Feb. 20.—(UP)—District Judge F. W. Senn announced today the appointment of 15 Owatonna citizens to a committee which will consider drawing up a new city charter.

Proposals for a new charter have been received, Judge Senn said, from scores of citizens, who declared that the present charter, which was drawn up in 1909, is antiquated.

NEW STANDARD IS SET IN PERFECTING FLAVOR OF COFFEE

Roasting Process Used Exclusively by Hills Bros.
Insures Uniformity

For years Hills Bros. have enjoyed a distinct advantage in the coffee roasting industry. For they have a patented roasting process that prevents variation in flavor.

The basic principle of the process is roasting "a little at a time." Automatically measured lots of rare blended coffees—about three pounds—are introduced into the roaster in a steady stream and pass along in a continuous flow, roasting a little at a time. The speed of the flow and degree of heat never vary with the result that Hills Bros. Coffee is absolutely uniform.

No other coffee has the same delicious flavor of Hills Bros. Coffee because no other coffee is roasted the same way. This patented process—Controlled Roasting—is radically different from the common bulk-roasting method.

Freshness is assured in Hills Bros. Coffee because it is packed in vacuum cans. By this process, air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, is removed from the can and kept out. Ordinary cans, even if airtight, do not keep coffee fresh. Grocers everywhere sell Hills Bros. Coffee. Ask for it by name and look for the Arab—the trade-mark—on the can.

REV. VILHO RANTA ACCEPTS NEW CALL

Resigns at New York Mills to go to Hibbing Pastorate

Rev. Vilho Ranta, former pastor of the Finnish Lutheran church of this city, now pastor of the congregation of St. Peter's Lutheran church at New York Mills, has resigned to accept a call to the Synod church at Hibbing. He does not expect to leave until some time in May.

Mr. Ranta left Brainerd about seven years ago to go to New York Mills. Since becoming pastor there, the church has been built up. Both a Junior and Senior choir have been built up, a Christian Endeavor organized, the church remodeled, a parsonage purchased, and the congregation greatly increased. The change to Hibbing comes as a distinct promotion for Mr. Ranta.

Governor Olson Calls Halt to Speech Making

St. Paul, Feb. 20.—(UP)—Gov. Floyd B. Olson, who has been making an average of two speeches a day in addition to his executive duties, today called a halt to activities outside the capitol.

Through his secretary, Vince Day, he served notice that he will accept only absolutely necessary speaking engagements during March.

The press of legislative business for the next month is expected to produce a large number of bills for his consideration and signature.

CHICAGO'S BATHTUB SCENE RIVALLED IN DENVER SOCIETY

Denver, Colo., Feb. 20.—(UP)—A rival to Chicago's bathtub scene was staged at the Civic theater of the University of Denver here last night.

Several differences were noted, however. Among them:

The principal was a dancer and was entirely nude, that is, unless you consider grease paint.

The dancer was a man and the audience was not public, but composed of a select group of society folk.

The exhibition was performed for art's sake and sought to demonstrate impressionistic dance interpretation.

There was no police raid of the affair, but there was about as much gossip afterwards as if there had been.

The youth was Edward McLean, former Denishawn dancer. He began his moody writhings under shadow lights and as the lighting grew brighter, the performer donned various parts of a costume.

"FOREST LOVE" by HAZEL LIVINGSTON

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE.

Nancy Hollenbeck, young, vibrant and beautiful, reluctantly drops her latest beau, Mat Tully, when her mother warns her against marrying a poor man "as she did." At the rich Craigs' house party, Nancy receives the attentions of Jack Beamer, handsome sportsman, unhappily married. Nancy and Louise, her sister, are called home. Their rich Aunt Ellie has arrived. She promises the girls a trip to Yosemite.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

CHAPTER X.

THE Whaley girl next door furnished mama with more tangible worry. She was getting invitations to the Tollenbeck girls were not. And who were the Whaleys? Nobody at all. Mama had snubbed Bertha Smith for the shopkeeper's daughter she was when they were girls, and turned up her aristocratic nose at the plodding, Dutchy Raymond Whaley, who wasn't even in society at all. And now Bertha with a daughter mentioned in the society columns nearly every day. It was too much. Mama was worried, and when she worried, she nagged.

"Louise, the Whaley girl is on the receiving list at Major Nutting's."

"Is she?"

"Yes, she is. It says here in the Herald, 'Miss Isabelle Whaley, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Arthur Whaley, of Piedmont, will be one of the charming young girls who will—'"

"Oh, spare us. What do I care what Isabelle Whaley does?"

"Louise! Mama won't have you talk like that. I don't understand why you girls weren't asked? Are you sure you have always been sweet to Mrs. Nutting? You know, dear, sometimes you're a little indifferent—"

"Oh, mama! It isn't that!"

Reflected Actions

"How do you know it isn't, my dear? And it isn't as though you were alone. Your actions reflect on Nancy. It hardly seems fair for your younger sister, to have to suffer because you—"

"But, mama, I HAVEN'T been rude to Mrs. Nutting. Good Lord, she doesn't know I'm alive!"

"LOUISE! You mustn't talk like that to your mother. Why doesn't she want to know you? I'm sure my people are as good as hers. When I was a young girl no smart gathering would have been COMPLETE without me. It's true that your father's people are not—"

"distinguished. . . but nobody knows them around here. It isn't like having a grandfather who kept a grocery store, like poor Isabelle's. Who would think, to see Bertha Whaley in her mink coat now, that she wore dirty red plush—dirty, mind you, made out of an old tablecloth or something, when she was first married. I'm not one to wish anyone harm, but I often think if people ever saw Dutchy Whaley with his dirty face, working for my father around the stable in Fruitvale. . ."

"Clickety, clack. Clickety, clack. Once mama's tongue got started on this subject there was no stopping it. Aunt Ellie, hands folded on her stomach, rocked and nodded. Louise sewed in frozen silence. She would have given anything in the world to get away from it all. To get out and make a place for herself in the workaday world. The world where nobody cared how pretty you were or how much money you had, provided you did your work efficiently and well. But how can you get out and carve a career for yourself when your mother's health is failing and you're needed at home?

In that mood she almost sympathized with Nancy. Love didn't end in the divorce court. Jack Beamer had more money than he could spend and he had a place in society as well. Head waiters scrambled when he approached. People liked him. His ranch in the fertile valley of the San Joaquin was one of the show places of the State. His yacht, the Swallow, won every regatta up and down the coast. His horses were international favorites. Sunday supplements from East to West knew him as a polo player.

It was even easy to overlook his marriage. It was notoriously a joke. They didn't even go to formal parties together any more. For years people had asked, "When are the Beamers going to Reno?"

Why shouldn't Nancy marry him if she wanted to?

But just when Louise would get that far in her thoughts and begin to picture Nancy secure, petted, pampered, the second Mrs. Beamer, another picture would flash over the first one, blotting it out.

Jack Beamer holding Nancy in his strong, thick arms, his broad back bent to lift her closer . . . Nancy, slim and white and strangely tragic as she had looked that night in the pale starlight, when she and Mat had come upon them near the river. So she always ended by wanting to cry. . . no use pretending. . . it wasn't right, and nothing, not even Jack Beamer's money, could make it right.

Not Natural

Nancy wasn't herself, either. She wandered around with two bright red spots in her cheeks, listening for the telephone, watching for the postman, quarrelsome and restless as a caged cat.

"For Pete's sake, if we're going, why don't we go? What is Aunt Ellie waiting for? If I'd known we were going to wait around a week I'd have gone right back to the river. It'll be just like her not to go, after all!"

But, slowly and surely, Aunt

Ellie got ready to leave. Two of the best rooms at the Awahee were reserved. Tickets were bought. A fat roll of greenbacks withdrawn from the bank. Her favorite prescriptions were filled, her traveling medicine case equipped with vari-colored pills. A bottle of pre-war whiskey against snake bite. A case of mineral water to go on ahead. A last farewell to poor Uncle Joseph, round-faced and jolly, despite his sufferings, as he lay on his narrow white bed at St. Francis' Hospital. A last poisonous look at the fresh looking nurse who was "specializing" him, and Aunt Ellie and the girls were on their way.

Mama waved a fondly tearful good-bye from the doorway; the taxi started, Aunt Ellie pointed a fat finger at the meter. "It was twenty-five cents before we went a quarter of a block. How can't cheat me. There goes his tip!"

They came into the valley at midday. It lay under the golden eye of the sun in extravagant, unreal beauty. A turquoise sky without the faintest puff of cloud hung like a canopy overhead. A backdrop of mountains, picked out with the silvery threads of distant waterfalls; the deep green of distant forest was like a stage setting for the rustic luxury of the most expensive hotel. Rivers rushed, clucking coolly over stones. Mountain meadows gleamed through trees. The great falls thundered; the sun made rainbows of their farflung spray.

Monotony

But Aunt Ellie Watson was not interested in scenery. She had come to the Yosemite to rock, and she made it very plain that she had brought the girls to rock with her.

Resentful but resigned, Lou sat beside her and said "Yes, Aunt Ellie," and "No, I don't think so, Aunt Ellie," while the old lady droned, "I don't think much of the fish for lunch. At the prices they charge one would expect . . . mercy, was that a mosquito? I declare, if there's one around here for miles, it makes for me. . . I wonder what your Uncle Joseph is up to? You needn't expect to get anything when he passes away; he will have it all spent on women. Did you see that nurse look at me? She knew I knew what she was up to. . . Rheumatism, indeed! I'll show him!"

Nancy sat mute beside them, her slim hands crossed in her lap, dark eyes moodily scanning the crowds. After dinner they yawned in the lobby until nine o'clock. Aunt Ellie put her everlasting crochets in its black satin bag and plodded towards the elevator. "We might as well go too," Louise said. "We don't know anyone."

She slipped her arm through Nancy's and got to her feet. "Wait!" Nancy breathed. She was leaning forward, staring fixedly at a man who had just come in.

Verdict of Accidental Death in Car Mishap

Williston, N. D., Feb. 20.—(UP)—A coroner's jury late yesterday returned a verdict of accidental death in the case of Alma Evenson, 27, who was killed when the automobile in which she and Berger Rossland were riding crashed into a ditch.

Rossland testified before the jury that Miss Evenson became frightened when the automobile hit a depression, grasped his arms and caused him to lose control of the machine.

"SARGON PUT ME ON JOB, WELL MAN"

"After being laid up for three months, I'm back on the job again, thanks to this Sargon treatment."

WM. RAETZ

declared Wm. Raetz, 344 Franklin Ave., Minneapolis, car inspector for the C. & M. Railroad.

"I had an awful case of stomach trouble. I'd feel so weak and nauseated after meals I'd get right dizzy. I was awfully nervous, couldn't sleep good; and lost strength every day."

"Sargon put me on my feet a well man! I never have any trouble with my stomach or nervousness; sleep good and wake up mornings full of energy."

"My wife took Sargon, too, to build up her strength after several operations, and it's made a new woman out of her."

CITATION FOR HEARING ON PETITION FOR PROBATE OF WILL

No. 3502

State of Minnesota, County of Crow Wing, ss., Probate Court.

In the Matter of the Estate of Jens Pedersen, sometimes called Jens Pederson and Jens Peterson, Decedent.

The State of Minnesota to All Whom It May Concern:

Marvin J. Petersen, of the City of Brainerd, in said County and State, has deposited in this Court an instrument in writing purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Jens Pedersen, late of the County of Crow Wing, State of Minnesota, together with her petition praying that said instrument be allowed and admitted to probate, and that letters of administration with will annexed be granted thereon to Peter A. Stendal, which instrument and petition are on file in this Court and open to inspection.

IT IS ORDERED: That said petition be heard on the 2nd day of March, 1931, at ten o'clock A. M., at the Probate Court Room, in the Court House at Brainerd, in said County and State; that you be and appear before this Court at said time and place and show cause, if any there be, why said petition should not be granted; that you file your objections, if any there be, in writing, in this Court, to the allowance of said Will, here said hearing; and that this citation be served by the publication thereof according to law, and by mailed notice as required by the rules of this Court.

WITNESS, The Judge of this Court and the Seal thereof this 4th day of February, 1931.

(Probate Court Seal) L. B. KINDER, Judge of Probate.
